I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with the letter from the Government of India, in the Foreign Department, No. 3290-I., dated the 5th October 1895, regarding the ceremonies at which the National Anthem should be played.

2. Paragraph 33 of Army Regulations, India, Volume II, has again been reconstructed, and a copy of the amended paragraph is enclosed for the information and guidance of the Governor in Council.

ENCLOSURE.

Draft Corrections to Army Regulations, India, Volume II.

Paragraph 33 is reconstructed as follows :—

Paragraph 33.—(1) Her Majesty's forces are on all occasions to receive the Sovereign, all members of the Royal Family and the Viceroy with the highest honours, viz., with a Royal Salute—Standards and colours lowered; officers saluting; men presenting arms; and bands playing the National Anthem.

(2) When troops pay the prescribed honours to the Sovereign, the National Anthem is to be played through; when to other members of the Royal Family, the first part only (six bars) will be played.

The first part is to be played at the Salute of the Viceroy and at State Ceremonials, when a special Royal Commissioner or a Governor or any other Head of a Local Government or Administration is acting on behalf of the Sovereign.

The National Anthem will not be played in connection with the salutes on any other occasion, and is only due to those personages who are entitled under these regulations to a Royal Salute.

(3) Foreign Crowned Heads and members of Foreign Royal Families are to be received with the honours due to the Sovereign and members of the Royal Family, respectively; but their own National Hymn is, when practicable, to be played.
