Letter to His Excellency the Governor of the French Settlements in India, No. 881, Political, dated 30th December 1896.

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your Excellency's letter of the 5th instant, No. 21, intimating that you propose to visit Madras in the course of your tour of inspection of the French Settlements in India. It will give me great pleasure to entertain your Excellency at Government House during your stay in Madras, and I trust that the date I have suggested to Captain Annet for your arrival at Madras—viz., the 8th January—will suit the convenience of your Excellency. I beg you will do me the favour of forwarding a copy of the detailed programme of your tour in this Presidency as soon as it is prepared, so that the necessary arrangements may be made for your Excellency's convenience whilst travelling in this Presidency.

Be pleased to accept the assurance of the high consideration with which, &c.

(Signed) A. E. HAVELOCK.

Notification, dated 4th January 1897.

His Excellency the Governor of the French Settlements in India is expected to arrive at Madras on Friday, the 8th January 1897, at 7-45 A.M., on a visit to His Excellency the Governor.

His Excellency will be received at the Egmore Railway Station by His Excellency the Governor and Staff, the Members of Council, the Additional Members of Council, the Chief Secretary, the Secretaries to Government, the President of the Municipal Commission, the Chief Presidency Magistrate, the Sheriff, and the heads of departments in Madras.

The Honourable the Chief Justice and the Honourable the Judges of the High Court are invited to be present.

All gentlemen of Her Majesty's Services, Civil and Military, not on duty, are directed to attend.

The Commissioner of Police will arrange for the disposition of carriages and for the maintenance of order at the railway station and along the route thence to Government House.

Full dress uniform will be worn. Officers not entitled to wear uniform will wear morning dress.

The Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, is requested to issue the necessary orders, under the instructions of the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, for a guard of honour to be paraded at the railway station on the occasion, for the usual salute being fired on His Excellency's arrival, and for the attendance at the railway station of the General Officer Commanding Madras District and Staff, and all Military Officers off duty, to receive His Excellency the Governor of the French Settlements.

The Collector of South Arcot and Political Agent for Pondicherry will meet the Governor of the French Settlements in India at the confines of his district and will accompany His Excellency to the confines of the Chingleput district, whence the Collector of that district will escort His Excellency to Madras. The Collectors of these districts will arrange for all due honour being shown to His Excellency en route.

His Excellency the Governor of the French Settlements in India will leave Madras in the S.S. "Eridan" on Sunday, the 10th January 1897, about noon. His Excellency's departure will be private.

The Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, is requested to issue the necessary orders, under the instructions of the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, for a guard of honour to be paraded at the pier on the occasion and for the usual salute being fired on Monday.

From His Excellency Monsieur E. GIROD, Governor of the French Settlements in India, to His Excellency the Governor of Madras, dated Pondicherry, the 4th January 1897, No. 22.

J'ai l'honneur de vous accuser réception de votre très-aimable lettre en date du 30 Décembre dernier, et de vous faire connaître que j'accepte avec le plus vif plaisir la très-gracieuse hospitalité que vous voulez bien m'offrir au Gouvernement House pendant la durée de mon séjour à Madras, où j'arriverai le 8 Janvier prochain à 8 heures du matin par le train ordinaire.

2. Il m'est très-difficile de préciser dès maintenant à votre Excellence les dates auxquelles je visiterai les villes importantes de votre Présidence. Cependant, je pense être à Mahé dans les premiers jours de Février pour de là me rendre à Calicut et à Karikal en visitant Trichinopoly, Madura, Tanjore et Negapatam.

3. Dans tous les cas je me ferai un devoir de prévenir votre Excellence par télégramme de l'époque exacte à laquelle je serai de retour dans votre Présidence aussitôt qu'il me sera possible de le faire.—Veuillez agréer, &c.

Notification, dated 7th January 1897.

In modification of the Gazette Extraordinary of the 4th instant, it is notified that His Excellency the Governor of the French Settlements in India is expected to arrive at the Egmore railway station on Friday, the 8th January 1897, at 8-15 A.M.
