G.O.No.374, Political, dated 18th June 1892 laid down that the continuance of ceremonial allowances granted by the state to Muhammadans was, in future, to depend on the objects for which the grants were made. If the object was the performance of some duty enjoined by the Muhammadan faith on pain of sin, such as those classed as farz, wajib and sunnat, the allowance was to be considered as permanent; otherwise the allowance was to be temporary one.

This principle was applied to these three cases; but before extending it to all ceremonial allowances, Govt. called for a joint report from the Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, and the Board of Revenue on the matter in order to ascertain whether any of the allowances ought not to be stopped or declared temporary.

To secure uniformity in the those in which an obligation was sanctioned by religion were to be permanently endowed: but voluntary acts were to be accorded only temporary grants ment of the different allowances it considered advisable to deal with encumbrances at the same time, and a lar form in which particulars relative then should be submitted was prescribed

G.O.No. 341, Pol., d/ 3-8-94.

In June 1896 the reports that then called for had not all been sub-ted to Govt.; but on a review of those ived it was resolved to forgo all other general enquiries into the nature the services on account of which the vances had been made, as it was then that if Govt. was to deal with mmunee grants, it would be logically ten to a similar enquiry into all which services had ceased to be pered or were not renewed with efficiwere however to be submitted for to be reported to Govt. on the reof the then granted
