To

The Right Honorable

The Governor in Council,

Fort St. George,

Madras.

The humble petitioner Abdool Raoof Sahib SECRETARY
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS
APR 1897

humbly sheweth

That your Excellency's poor petitioner gets a monthly pension of Rs 25 which is quite inadequate for himself and his dependents' maintenance specially in these days of hardship. The pensions enjoyed by Furab Ali Khan and Mussani Beegum who are respectively petitioner's uncle and aunt are continued to their heirs in full, whereas the petitioner was not granted the full pension of his mother who was the uterine sister of the above persons. That petitioner was appealing ever since 15th August 1876 the date of the grant of his present pension of Rs 25 for justice, but was not

Govt. for an increase to his stipend on the score that while he, Abdur Ratt, had only been granted Rs 25 out of the joint pensions of his father and mother (Rs 123 + 53-14-0) the stipends of his uncle, Turab Ali, and of his aunt, ^{Hossaini} Begam, ^{had been} were continued in full to their children. His case was then looked into. The cases submitted by him were admitted to be on all fours with his but ~~gone into~~ and Govt. declined to reopen it as it was thought improper after a lapse of years to do so. It may also be remarked that, notwithstanding the continuation of the stipends of Turab Ali and Hossaini Begam ~~stipends~~ in full, their children were not as well provided for as the petitioner; none of them received as much as the petitioner (viz Rs 25); one individual only ^{a stipend of} received Rs 20, and all the rest received stipends of Rs 10 and less. As the present petition ^{does not differ} materially from that presented in 1891, the following order is submitted:—
Order No. 2277 of 27-4-97
The Petitioner will be referred to G.O. No. 667 of 6-11-91, which is final.
Further petitions from him on this subject will not be noticed.

* The answer to this is that in these cases there were more to share and they were for the full pension was divided in eight parts in all. However, all that is said by the Govt. of the petition was not before and duly considered.

vide lists given in G.O. No. 407 of 23-6-84 F and 324 of 8-9-82 B

The case is quite clear and the present petition differs in no way from that disposed of by G.O. No. 667 of 6-11-91. — C
The petitioner is entitled to the same treatment as the former cases.
