against this stipend the term moiety is entered in schedule 7 appended in Fort St. George Gazette dated 22nd May 1880.

3. The memorialist's husband Mohamed Zahoor read die Hassan Khan Bahadur having been requested in his life time by Paymaster of the Carnatic stipends to furnish the names of all his wives, submitted memorialist's name in his letters to that Officer dated 5th February 1875 and 27th August 1885 respectively.

4. When the memorialist applied to the Paymaster for the moiety, the Paymaster of the Carnatic stipends gave an endorsement, that Famedhi informed that Government decline to grant any pension until her claims is validated in the District Court in connection with the pious property.

5. After obtaining an endorsement from the Paymaster, the memorialist went to the District Court and applied for the plaint in the former Papers

Refused. The application is rejected not having proper means.

6. After this the memorialist applied to Government enclosing the copy of the decision of the court. The Government informed the memorialist that the Government has no right to interfere in the orders of the Paymaster.

7. The humble memorialist begs to state that the memorialist was the wife of the late Zahooruddin Hussain Khan Bahadur orkut, if the memorialist was the wife of the late pensioner, why not the Government protect the memorialist.

8. If the Government has any doubt about the memorialist's widow, the memorialist begs to refer to the registers of the Paymaster in the year 1882 & 1891.

9. For which act of kindness and generosity the humble memorialist will pray for ever.
