Translation of a letter from His Excellency the Viceroy to the address of His Highness the Amir of Afghanistan and its Dependencies No 35 P.O, dated the 15th April 1897.

CHIEF SECRETARY
25 APR. 1897
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

After Compliments.

Your Highness wrote to me on the 26th Rabi-us-Sani, 1314 H, corresponding to the 5th October 1896, sending a letter which you had received from Sher Afzal of Chitral, and asking me to allow him to return to Kabul.

I regret that I am unable to meet Your Highness's wishes in this respect. I should have informed Your Highness of this decision earlier had I not received a few days before your letter reached me, information that Sher Afzal was anxious that his wives and family might be permitted to come to India. This necessitated some enquiries the result of which has only just reached me.

I now append a list of the relatives who are at Kabul, and whom Sher Afzal wishes to be allowed to join him at Ootacamund, if they are willing to come.

Two wives of Sher Afzal and their respective mothers.

Three

Three daughters of Sher Afzal.
Two grandsons (sons of Shah Nadir Khan) named Shah Azam Khan and Sher Azam Khan, and their mother.
Jamid Khan, brother-in-law of Sher Afzal.

If Your Highness will agree to these persons leaving Kabul, and will send them to Peshawar, I will have arrangements made for their onward journey to Oolacamund.
