Most Respectfully Sheweth:

1. That Your Honour's poor and humble petitioner had been drawing a pension of Rs 15 per mensem under the provisions of G.O dated 19th July 1875 which he had then commuted for 6 years purchase and had received a bonus of 1080 Rs
as sanctioned by G.O dated 25th Feb 1886.

2. That Your Honour's humble petitioner having been reduced to highly straitened circumstances owing to the increased difficulties of living, had appealed in August 1892 to the Paymaster of Carnatic Stipends to generously renew his pension to enable him to spend away his declining days in peace; but Your Honour's humble petitioner's prayer was not granted. (Vide enclosure A.).

3. That in consequence of advanced age which now borders
on 80 years, Your Honour's petitioner has lost his eyesight entirely, and is thus totally incapacitated to eke out a livelihood in these days of keen competition and struggle for life.

With reference to your endorsement A^o 88^o dated 15th April 1897 "Political", on petition Current A^o 417, from C. Krishnana Naidu, I have the honour to state that petitioner is defective in his sight on account of old age. He is a clerk on Rs. 15/- per mensem in the Office of the Secretary to the Prince of Arcot, which post he still holds and gets his pay regularly, though he does not attend to work owing to the defect in his sight.

I have the honour to be

Petition from Krishnama Naidu,

Political Dept:

C.Nos.417, 433 & 564

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR

FOR ORDERS

Petitioner, Krishnama

Naidu, had been a writer under and a dependant of Prince Azim Jah of Arcot, on whose death in 1874 he received an allowance of Rs.15 per mensem in accordance with the arrangements approved by the Govt. of India for granting charitable allowances to certain of the Prince's dependants.

2. In 1886, Krishnama Naidu voluntarily commuted his stipend ^{receiving a bonus of} for Rs.1,080.

3. In 1892, Krishnama Naidu, on applying to the Paymaster for a renewal of his pension, was informed that as he had received the full value of his stipend, no assistance could be afforded him.

4. He now states that he is about 80 years of age (78 by list appended to G.O.No.²⁴⁵~~241~~, d/ 26th April 1875), has completely lost his sight and is in indigent circumstances, and prays for a renewal of his pension with effect from 1892.

5. Krishnama Naidu cites the case of Asif Jung as a precedent for renewing commuted stipends. He evidently refers to the case of Itimad-ud-daulah, Khader Husain, Khan Bahadur, Asaf Jung, who drew a pension of Rs. per mensem which he commuted in 1857 for Rs.17,640. In 1878 ^{Itimad-ud-daulah} he applied for a continuation of his stipend and was granted a life pension of Rs.

Rs.17/8/- per mensem but only as a very special case, Govt. taking into consideration his "advanced age" (67), his helpless and destitute condition and his social rank as a grandson of Nawab Wallajah." The status of Itimad-ud-daulah was very different to that of petitioner.

6. In C.No.564 the Paymaster reports that although petitioner's eyesight is defective on account of old age, he is in receipt of Rs.15 per mensem from the Prince of Arcot, who allows him to fill nominally the post of clerk in the office of his Secretary.

7. Submitted that petitioner has made out no case and that the following order ^{may} issue:--

ORDER No 30588 May 1897

Petitioner will be informed that, after perusing a report by the Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, on his case, ~~the Govt.~~ the Govt. does not consider that it merits special treatment. The petition will accordingly be rejected.
