CURRENT No. 1568
To, The Right Honourable the Chief Secretary to His Excellency the Governor
Fort St. George
Madras.

May it please His Excellency J. Sankarajena, blood
Royal Prince of Chennaisar, Ganjam District, once more beg pardon to lay his grievances at His Excellency's kind feet for the proper redress and prays that his deplorable condition may be taken into beguine consideration.

1. Though, all the English, from top to bottom, are officers under the control and supervision of the Government, who reigns supreme upon all.
2. By Government our Saluk is taken the Union Rajah had been taken to Madras by the same Government and by them only the pension for each of the family was settled and upon the Govt. we pensioners wholly depend for our welfare.
3. The justice issued from the Govt. seats when comes through the subordinate it some what changes, hence, the local injust prevail.

4. The memorialist's case is a help one and wants to be dealt with a little compassion and be miserably she is treated by the sustigation of her ruin her brother and some cut-throat men that people dare to beat the memorialist in public houses in day time. and thereby try their best to profit by her loss.

5. The memorialist is a poor woman having no one to help her, in her distress, but Government is the strength of the poor & helpers.
Therefore, as memorialist's case is a special one she prays that it will be taken into the consideration of the Govt: or else it will be on the coming for the Govt: to put aside her requests and she will be utterly ruined.

Hence, she prays that justice be granted after a mature consideration, up to this time the memora-list's loss, through the injustice of the lower authorities nearly Rs 4,000 for 13 years + at last memorialist submit herself to the care of the British Govt.

She begs leave to remain may it please you. Excellency your most obedient servant
