The humble petition of Sultan Hossain, the great grandson of Nabob Muhammad Ali the Wallajah.

Most humbly shameth,

That your Lordship humble petitioner after kissing the dust of your feet begs to bring his deplorable Case to your Excellency's benign Consideration hoping to meet with success.

That your Excellency's helpless and poor petitioner begs to state that petitioners ancestors having sold their Carnatic stipendiary enjoyed themselves Lazily without Caring whatever to the Future state of their Children and left them to beg or die in this world

The petitioner most humbly begs to inform your Excellency that your Excellency's poor petitioner once applied to C. F. Macartie Esqr. I. F. C. S. I. E. to grant him a recommendatory note to F. J. A. Plowden Esqr. Esqr. C. S. I. C. S. British Resident of Hyderabad Deccan but the poor petitioner's request was granted on Considering of his nobility, and the poor petitioner received a Post Card through him which the petitioner herewith sends for your Excellency's perusal. In the meantime the Late Governor of Madras retired, and the poor petitioner unfortunately failed to succeed in his attempts and still remains in the same hope.

Further your poor petitioner humbly begs of your Excellency that the poor petitioner once applied to the Commander-in-Chief of Madras for a Jamadar post in any Regiment according to the Recent Government Rules Concerning for the Wallajah Family but your Excellency's poor petitioner received a reply, stating that the petitioner Could send his application to any Regiment where the Jawadar post was vacant. So the poor petitioner applied to the 9th Regiment and received a reply from A. Firth Lieut Adjt 9th Regt M.I. after an inquiry from the Carnatic stipendiary office whether the petitioner belongs to the Wallajah family or not; but a reply was sent to the Adjt 9th Regt from the said office that the petitioner belongs to the Noble family of Wallajah.

In Conclusion the poor petitioner Begs to inform your Excellency that since his forefathers are buried in Hyderabad Deccan. Your Excellency on Considering the above lines be pleased to grant him two recommendatory lines to the British Resident of Hyderabad Deccan named J. J. St. Flaudeu Esqr C. S. I. C. S, So that he may give the petitioner any post which will suit to his Noble family and his knowledge; and for your Excellency's satisfaction the petitioner has Copied overleaf the testimonials which he owns.
