Read—the following letter from G. H. S. CLARKE, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 19th April 1897, No. 986-F. :—

With reference to the correspondence ending with my letter, No. 3543-F., dated the 26th December 1896, I am directed to inform you that the Governor-General in Council has decided that Inayat Shah, Chitrali, need no longer be kept as a State prisoner. I am to request that he may now be released, and that the warrant for his detention issued under Regulation III of 1818 may be returned.

2. Inayat Shah should be provided with a railway passage to Nowshera, whence he should proceed to the Malakand and report himself to Major Deane, Political Officer for Dir, Swat and Chitral, who will arrange to send him on to Chitral. Reasonable diet expenses may be given to Inayat Shah, and, if considered necessary, a man may be sent with him to help him on the journey.

Order—Mis. No. 287, Political, dated 29th April 1897.

Communicated to the Collector of the Nilgiris, who will take the necessary steps for the release of Inayat Shah and make arrangements for his return journey. The Collector's attention is specially drawn to paragraph 2 of the letter from the Government of India. His Excellency the Governor in Council considers it desirable that a trustworthy person should accompany Inayat Shah on his journey and the Collector will arrange accordingly. The warrant of detention issued under Regulation III of 1818 should be returned with a report from the Collector as to the steps taken by him.
