2. On a former similar occasion I recommended the grant of allowance for a private tutor as it was reported by the Head master of a Secondary School Madura to be necessary. On further enquiry and consideration I am not disposed to make any more such recommendations unless under special circumstances. If teaching is properly done in schools, there should be no need for a private tutor, and it is better that pupils should not depend on such assistance. The children for whom the present application is made are aged 11 and 9 respectively.
