The Chief Secretary to the Government Political Dept.
 Madras
 through the Collector Kistna

The humble representation of Mohamed Ali son of late Hussain Ali and holder of P.P. Order no 2878, a Masulipatam Stipendiary.

That the petitioner was accused by the Collector Kistna of having signed the false life certificate of Shazai Begum a Masulipatam Stipendiary and the explanation of the petitioner was taken through the British Resident of Hyderabad Deccan. The collector now informs the petitioner that the Government in its order no 195 dated 23rd March 1897 was pleased to order a reduction of Rs 5/- per mensem for six months from the monthly pension of the petitioner from the date of the order.

2. In obedience to the above order the petitioner humbly and respectfully begs to represent that he signed the documents with a bonafied intention thinking that that it is a simple receipt to acknowledge the money due to her from month to month from Huzur at Masulipatam and the petitioner was quite unaware that the document contains a life certificate of the pensioner as well the wording of the document being in English and the petitioner could not able to use his discretion that the receipt contains a life certificate.

3. In the explanation submitted through the British Resident it is plainly admitted that the document was signed with a bonafide intention thinking that it is a simple receipt for the money due from Huzur at Masulipatam, and the petitioner used to sign the receipt in advance from the beginning as he was quite ignorant of the fact that the receipt form contains also the life certificate of the pensioner. He would not have signed the document if he had known that the receipt form also contains life certificate of the pensioner & he would not have admitted in his

his deposition that it is a practice from the beginning.

4. It is impossible for the Government to think that the petitioner signed the receipt with a fraudulent intention. The petitioner who is respectable and worthy personage among the officials in His H. H. the Nizam's service would his life in a noble manner would not condiscend to do this mean act in contravention of the rules if he knows the true of acts of the receipts.

5. The petitioner feels highly for the punishment imposed on him on account of respect and the position he now holds in the Nizam's dominions and he therefore humbly and respectfully prays the Government to consider once more the facts of the case and pardon the petitioner.

For which Act of Kindness I shall as in duty bound ever pray They to remain
Your most obedient servant

for mohamed Ali
