That she further begs to submit that she is related as follows to the late Mysore Nawabs family whose decendants are now in the custody of the British Government and has come down such noble family, that this petitioner is the daughter of late Nawab Meer Kutbuddin Khan Bahdoor and that this Kutbuddin Khan was the brother-in-law of Tippoo Sultan. Tippus mother in law is Fathma Begam and his father-in-law Nawab Meer Mohiuddin Khan. Sister of this Mohiuddin Khan Bahdoor was the wife of His Highness Hyder Ali. Kutbuddin Khan father of the petitioner is the son of Fathima Begam and Mohiuddin Khan. This Kutbuddin Khan is therefore related to Tippoo as brother-in-law. and son of Brother in law to Haider Ali. Tippoo's wife Ameena Begam is the own Sister of Nawab Meer Kutbuddin Khan. He had also 2 other daughters named Makbool Begam and Sakina Begam. This Makbool Begam was the adopted daughter of Kutbuddins Mother and therefore she was allowed to enjoy the pension of Kutbuddin's mother Fathma Begam. In turn this Fathma Begam adopted this petitioner Sakina Begam. who also enjoyed the other properties of the deceased Makbool Begam and therefore she claims the right of the pension her. The pension enjoyed by Fathma Begam and Makbool Begam is Rs 21-4-0.

In addition to the appeal petition already submitted to the Government of India dated the 11th July 1896 She further begs to submit the following and pray to request the Government to consider the whole circumstances and grant the pension she now claims.

She begs to state that she is old and feeble woman and that she is also a goshaw-female who could not go out to get her livelihood in these critical times. She is depended upon by several children and her age is now about 60 years. In this old and feeble age she cannot go out and get livelihood to herself and the children. Depending on her and there is a restriction that goshaw female shall not go out. Under these circumstances She prays the grant of pension Rs 21-4-0.

She submitted an appeal to the Government of India direct on the 11-6-96 as the did not recieve any reply from the Government for the appeal submitted to Government of India through the Madras Government on the 16-4-96 on the same subject. In reply the Government of Madras passed Proceedings that appeals to the Government of India will not be noticed after 12 months from the date of final order against which the appeal is preferred.

On this head the petitioner begs to submit that the appeal time is not barred as the final order of the Madras Government has passed only on the 24-2-96; and she further begs to submit that there is time for appeal upto the 24-2-97. The petitioner, therefore prays that her petition should be accepted. A copy of the final order No. 133 / 24-2-96 of the Madras Government is herewith submitted. Madras Government Proceedings No 636 dt/11th Sep. 96 is also submitted

Under these circumstances the petitioner prays that she may be granted the pension of Rs 21-4-0 enjoyed by Mahboob Begam. who adopted the petitioner.
