CURRENT No. 431

To

His Excellency the Governor-in-Council, Fort St. George,
Madras.

The humble petition of Hathima Begam Sahiba, residing at 1/44, Sembas Dass Street,
Madras.

Most Humbly Sheweth,

1. That petitioner is a political pensioner of Kistna District drawing a monthly pension of Rs 15....

2. That the said pension is barely adequate for the maintenance of the petitioner and her house rent, in these hard days.

3. That in consequence, petitioner is willing to exchange her monthly pension to that of a lump sum, as the Government may be pleased to fix so that she may invest the amount in landed property by which she may not only live in a portion of the said land to be purchased, but derive also income by letting the other portion (major) of the same for her maintenance.

4. That petitioner therefore prays that her request may be complied with at an early date.

5. Petitioner has also appealed to the Collector of Masulipatam, but no reply has been received up to date.

For which petitioner, as in duty bound will ever remain, Sir,

Madras 26th March 1897.
