The Collector of Mellow

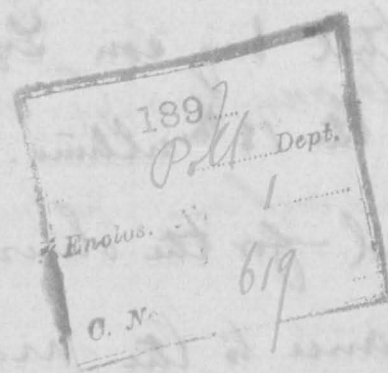

Honored Sir

With due respect and humble submission,

Lyd Dawood Alli Khan Sahib, grandson of the Ex gazidars of Kdaigiri, begs to bring the following to your gracious consideration.

2 Since the gazis of Kdaigiri was annexed, the Government is supporting one of annuity and also has been kind enough to grant no such extra expenses that is unavoidable and absolutely necessary in the interests of my family.

3 I request to state that my son Lyd ^{Ali} Moolji aged 30 years died on the 18th ultimo. To perform his funeral rites and for the observation of such ceremonies in accordance to the practice observed in my religion, and to meet such expenses, I have no other source of help than the bounty of Govern-

In 1883 when I lost my daughter Badaai Bube Zaliba by Cholera and in 1888 when I lost and the daughter Mahabube her the Government sanctions Rs 100 on each occasion to meet the extra expenses.

I am now a poor man with a large family and added to it I have lost my son.

In this affliction and sorrow I humbly beg Your honor would be pleased to recommend to Government and obtain sanction for the payment of Rs 100 to meet the extra expenses as allowed to us by the Government on such occasions.

For such act of charity I am in duty bound ever pray.

CURRENT No 619

E. Scott Esquire,

Acting Collector of Mellore.

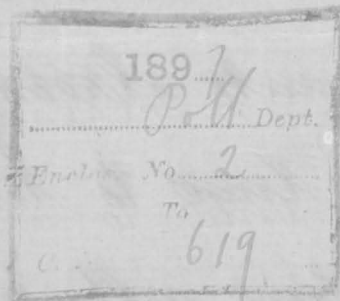

To

The Chief Secretary to Government, Political Department
Cotacmand.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith for the orders of Government an application from Saiyid Muhammad Daud Ali grandson of the late Ex-Jahid of Hdayagiri praying for a grant of Rs 100 to defray the funeral expenses of his son Saiyid Ali Mooka Raja who is stated to have died on the 18th March 1897.

2. A list of the amounts already sanctioned to the petitioner from time to time for expenses in connection with marriages and funerals in his family is enclosed.
3. As he gets an allowance of Rs 250 per

Petitioner, Saiyid Muhammad Daud Ali, is a grandson of Abbas Ali Khan ex-jagirdar of Udayagiri. The influence of the jagirdars of Udayagiri was once ~~very~~ considerable in the Nellore Dist, ^{but} ~~but~~ in 1839 Abbas Ali Khan and his sons were found guilty of high treason, their jaghir was resumed and they themselves were confined at Chingleput. For their support an allowance of Rs 400 per ensem was granted of which Rs 250 was allotted to the jagirdar himself. On the death of the jagirdar in 1841, Govt. continued to his three sons an allowance of Rs 230 per ensem. Of these three sons Saiyid Ghous Ali Khan was the only survivor in 1865. As the family was then reported to be in indigent circumstances, Ghous Ali Khan's stipend was raised from Rs 100 to Rs 150 per mensem. In 1872 the Secy. of State approved of the proposal that on purely compassionate grounds the stipend of Ghaus Ali Khan should be further increased to Rs 250 per mensem with retrospective effect from the date in 1866 when the previous enhancement was made.

On the 7th Jan. 1873 Ghaus Ali Khan died and on the recommendation of this Govt. the Govt. of India sanctioned the renewal of the pension in the name of the present holder and petitioner, Saigid Muhammad Daud Ali Khan.

In 1862 Ghaus Ali Khan had applied to this Govt. for a grant of Rs 2,000 for the celebration of the marriage of two of his daughters. Govt. then, moved by the reported destitution of the family of the ex-jaghiridar of Udaya-iri, sanctioned the grant prayed for. Encouraged by success this family has ever since applied to Govt. for grants

Daud Ali two or three times more was nothing in his appearance, or bearing, or talk to distinguish him from the ordinary "rick". The family is "hard up" & entirely dependent on Govt. Daud Ali never talked of any member of it as fit for the Govt. Service & I never heard of any. Under the circumstances I think the application should be refused.

grants to meet the expenses incurred by them on the occasion of every marriage and death that has occurred from that date onward. ~~The~~ The family of Daud Ali consisted in 1873 of 5 sons and 5 daughters and applications for grants have been of frequent occurrence. ~~Nevertheless~~ Govt. ^{has, however,} almost uniformly sanctioned the grants applied for and although in one instance the amount asked ^{for} was considered to be excessive, no refusal was made until the year 1891. (For a complete list of the sums thus granted from time to time please see Encl^o 1 to the letter from the Collector of Nellore C.No 619.) In the year 1891 Daud Ali ^{once more} applied for a grant for the celebration of the marriage of one of his daughters. It was then ^{considered} ~~pointed out~~ that apart from whatever grounds of policy there might ^{have} been for making these grants, the there could be no doubt that such grants must have proved an incentive to extravagance on the occasion of marriages. Govt then refused to make any grant

In the present current the petitioner, Daud Ali, states that one of his sons, Ali Mooya Raja, died and prays for a grant of Rs 100 to defray the funeral expenses. The last occasion on which a similar request was made was in 1888 when a sum of Rs 100 was granted to defray the funeral expenses of the petitioner's second daughter; previously a like sum had been granted on the death of another his daughters. The Collector states that he cannot commend the application, points out that the Board has expressed the opinion that demands such as the present should not be encouraged and that Govt has already once before

GO No. 385 Pol d/4-6-88

before refused to make a grant.

The following order is submitted:-

Order W. 4008 17th June 97

That the petitioner will be informed ^{by the Collector} that Govt. cannot comply with his request
