The Paymaster's letter explains the case clearly. Mirza Sikandar Baksh has been convicted of the abettment of criminal breach of trust and criminal misappropriation and sentenced to one year rigorous imprisonment. The case appears to be one of resumption of the stipend under para 9 of G.O. M.C. No. 280 of 19th March 1857, but the family, on whose behalf the Paymaster pleads, will be utterly poverty-stricken and the prospects of the children will be ruined. This is of course a necessary consequence of the conviction of the bread-winner but looking to the condition of the Carnatic Stipendiaries as a also it seems an open question whether additions to the ranks of the uneducated and backward amongst them should be not as where possible be prevented. Sikandar Bakshi's pension is a life-pension but there is nothing to prevent from continuing it, on resumption, for the benefit of the children. In that case the Paymaster might be directed to ensure that the boys continued their education.

To, The Chief Secretary to Government
Fort Saint George.

Sir,
With reference to para 2. of G.O. No. 445 dated 25th July 1892 "Political", I have the honour to state that Carnatic Stipendiary No. 711 D. Mirza Sikandar Baksh who draws a monthly stipend of Rs 20 by G.O. No. 696 dated 29th October 1888 "Political" was convicted by the Presidency Magistrate, Black Town, under Sections 109, 406 & 408 of the Indian Penal Code and sentenced to one year's rigorous imprisonment, vide Extract from the Calendar of the Court, herewith enclosed. Solicit the orders of Government as to the disposal of pension.
2. By G.O. No. 445 quoted above, a stipend of the 1801 class who was convicted of theft, was deprived of his pension, on the ground partly that the rule laid down in para 9. of G.O. No. 230 of 19th March 1857, did not apply to pensioners of the class and partly that the offence arose out of family difference.
3. The Stipendiary who is the subject of the above is the subject of the above.

5/7/97
To the Secy. (G.O.)
+ AG. (al)

sent reference belongs to the 1801 class but in para of the order quoted the Government determined ~ that the order of 1857 should be applicable to all ~ classes and that the pension of all classes of stipends should be "liable to resumption in case of misconduct"

Mirza Sikandar Bakhsh has a large family including 3 sons and 3 daughters. The boys are aged 18, 12 & 8 respectively. The daughters are unmarried. The first 2 boys are promising lads at school and the whole family depend on the pension of Rs 20, hitherto drawn. The effect of stopping the pension would be to deprive them of their only means of subsistence.

The order quoted does not absolutely rule that the pension of a stipendiary will cease on misconduct, but that it is "liable" to resumption.
