DEPARTMENT,

MADRAS.

SIR,

In reply to para 2 of G. O. No. 642, Political, dated the 15th September last, I have the honor to state, that the Palakonda pensioner, Venkatapathiraju, has a number of relatives in the Palakonda Taluq who are all mokhasadars and likely to be influential. I, therefore, think it would be wise to restrict his residence as was done in the case of his adoptive father, to a District south of the Chetna river. I do not, however, think it necessary to compel him to reside in any particular town or to keep him under the surveillance of the Police further than is necessary to see that he remains within the prescribed limits.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant

for Ag. Collector.
