In order to liquidate this debt I sold to him for ~~Rs 55~~ Rs 55 four cubits (2000) of my Chelum stalk heap at Hoilkuntla. When I ~~was~~ sold the fodder I asked for the document for noting therein the amount And he said that he would ~~produce~~ the document for noting down the moving the fodder. After some days when he came with carts to ~~remove the fodder~~ to remove his fodder I asked for the document among us on a large scale. Can you not rely on my words? Perish directing to the words of In Dad Alli principles in the second installment in order to pay this debt I held to him for ~~Rs 50~~ Rs 50 four

(Through the Political Agent Kurnool)

Most Respected Sir,

I a continuation of our petition (Submitted to your honor, through the Political Agent dated the 25th April 1897, we, the undersigned and Reddies of Jaghir Venkatapur Banaganapalle State, further request your honor the pleased to state as follows.

Our village (with the other two) is a hereditary grant made over to Hattah Hussain Bogga Sai, our Jaghirdar, by her father, the late Nawab.
We were happy and contented under her kind maternal care for 23 years.

Our Jaghirdar had been to sue for the possession of Raifa Jaghir, two years ago. So, taking hold of the good opportunity then occurred, the Nawab Banaganapalle collected all the revenue due from us, telling us that the same would be sent to our Jaghirdar for Cultivation etc., purposes are in her favour to this day.

We have already reported your honor in our petition, prior to this about the cruel and mal-treatment of the Nawab Banaganapalle.
He had intended to bother us in this manner too.

So we heartily sent for our Jaghirdar and hence her arrival. Soon after her arrival to our village we presented a petition. The material conditions of the petition are the following.

Cus 189 P
 187

- (1) We were happy and contented under your care for 23 years
- (2) Hawins is working hard, and so half the taxation should be abolished, of $\frac{1}{2}$ the revenue $\frac{1}{2}$ will be paid now and the rest in the year next.
 These conditions she readily and heartily gave her consent to and so we paid up all the rents as promised.

This gave rise to some antipathy between the Nawab and us. So he is of opinion to exchange us in case of any kind. Sentence us before the Court and thus sentence us to imprisonment and further opinion to impoverish and desolate our villages as he has done in villages of his own. We cannot but endure his iron sway. So we shall never part with our Jaghirdar.

We, therefore, earnestly crave your honor be pleased to issue orders to the Political Agent to hold a trial in cases of any kind brought against by the Nawab or his Subjects and thus do justice to these poor applicants, if not security will never be obtained.

Respectfully,
 30.6.97

We beg to remain,
 Respected Sir,
 Your most obedient Servant.
