POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—again the following papers :—

G.O., No. 462, Political, dated 24th July 1891.

Abstract.—Publishing a supplementary list of Kurnool Political stipendiaries with the decision arrived at in each case.

G.O., Mis. No. 153, Political, dated 4th March 1895.

Abstract.—Sanctioning the continuance of a portion of the stipend drawn by the late Ghulam Ghaus to his wives and sons; calling for information with a view to compilation of the several amounts; and directing the investment of the bonuses payable to the two sons.

G.O., Mis. Nos. 430, 431, Political, dated 4th July 1895.

Abstract.—Directing that the Resident at Hyderabad be addressed regarding the payment and investment of the bonuses payable to the members of the family of Ghulam Ghaus, late Kurnool pensioner.

G.O., Mis. No. 574, Political, dated 30th August 1895.

Abstract.—Informing Ghaffar-un-nisa Begam and three others that the decision to compulsorily commute the amounts granted to them out of the stipend of the late Ghulam Ghaus will not be modified, and making a correction in paragraph 2 of G.O., Mis. No. 153, Political, dated 4th March 1895.

Read—also the following paper :—

From E. A. ELWIN, Esq., Political Agent, Kurnool, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 23rd July 1897, C. No. 103-P.

I have the honour to submit the following for the orders of Government :—

The Treasury Officer of the Hyderabad Residency, in his letter, No. 374, dated 25th June 1897, reports that Kurnool Political pensioner No. 7, Muhammad Anwar Khan, drawing a monthly stipend of Rs. 175—vide appendix to G.O., No. 462, Political, dated 24th July 1891—died at Hyderabad on the 23rd May 1897, leaving a family, as noted below :—

One shadi wife, Mubarak Khatum, aged twenty-six years.
One son, Muhammad Ashraf Khan (by the above shadi wife), aged ten years.
One daughter, Masum Khatum (by the above shadi wife), aged nine months.

As noted in the remark column of the appendix above mentioned, the widow is entitled to compassionate allowance, the amount of which has now to be determined.

2. This case is similar to that of Ghulam Ghaus dealt with in G.Os., Nos. 153 and 574, Political, dated 4th March and 30th August 1895.

Order—No. 548, Political, dated 17th August 1897.

The stipend of the late Muhammad Anwar Khan will be dealt with on the same principle as that of the late Ghulam Ghaus, a moiety being continued to the members of his family according to the rules governing Carnatic pensions. The division will be as follows :—

G.O., No. 778, Political, dated 29th November 1888.

	Rs.	A.	P.
Mubarak Khatum (shadi widow)	21	14	0
Muhammad Ashraf Khan (shadi son)	43	12	0
Masum Khatum (shadi daughter)	21	14	0

These allowances, which are to be continued as monthly stipends, will absolutely lapse on the death of the respective holders and no continuations will, under any circumstance, be allowed.

2. Copy of these Proceedings will be forwarded to the Resident at Hyderabad who will be requested to, if he sees no objection, be so good as to make due arrangements for the investment of a portion of the stipend of the son and, if possible, of the daughter.

FOR ORDERS.

The Poll. Agent, Kurnool, reports the death, at Hyderabad, on the 23rd May 1897, of Kurnool political pensioner Muhammad Anwar Khan who was in receipt of a pension of Rs.175 per mensem - [vide appendix to G.O. No.7 Pol. dated 24th July 1891 on page 101 of the book file] It will be seen from that appendix that it was decided that the amount of compassionate allowance to be granted to the widow of the deceased should be determined on his death as in the case of No.5, Ghulam Ghaus in that list. The pensioner left a shadi wife aged 26, a son aged 10 years and a daughter aged 9 months, both the latter being the children of the shadi wife. The case of Muhammad Anwar Khan is dealt with in the printed note on pages 99 & 99 of the book-file. The Poll. Agent considers the case similar to that of Ghulam Ghaus which is dealt with in G.O No.155 Poll., d/ 4th March 1895. Ghulam Ghaus was in receipt of a pension of Rs.

and on his death this was divided as follows:--

Shadi widow----------	Rs.	12
Nikahi widow ---------	"	6
Son of -do- --------	"	4
Son of predeceased wife	"	5

This was agreed to by all the members of the Kurn Govt. 12.

all the amounts being compulsorily commuted. It will thus be seen that in his case one half of his stipend was continued. If it is decided to continue a similar proportion of the present stipend, the son would under the rules which govern Carnatic pensions (G.O.No.778 Poll., d/29th Novr. 1888) get two shares, the wife and daughter each getting one as follows:--

K

2 175
4 187-8
21-14

Son ----------	Rs.	43-12-0 ✓
Widow ----------	"	21-14-0 ✓
Daughter----------	"	21-14-0 ✓

The idea in 1890 - vide notes at Y - appears to have been that so much as one half of the stipend of Muhammad Anwar Khan should not be continued, although there was a different opinion as to the compulsory commutation. The case is one, however, in which Govt. can fix the amounts arbitrarily as Muhammad Anwar Khan being the third holder of the pension, the pension should really lapse and it is a case for compassionate allowance as decided by the order of 1891.

The amounts mentioned above are, of course too high for commutation.

Cuss 7/8/97

I submit that this case may be dealt with in accordance with the precedent quoted above. The two cases are similar. If this view is accepted it should be declared that the allowances will absolutely lapse on the death of the holders, that no continuation will be under any circumstances allowed & that no portion of the allowance of a deceased holder will be assigned to the survivors. 12/8/97

I accept this proposal. A.94 18.8.97
