In forwarding herewith copy of an application from the Dewan of Travancore No. $\frac{4086}{J. 207}$ of the 2nd Instant, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to lend to that state the services of a competent trained subordinate officer of the Madras Jail Department for a period of 6 months. The pay offered is Rs 75 for which a first grade Assistant Jailor in the Penitentiary or in any of the Central Jails can it seems, be secured. The Dewan has informed me in a subsequent communication that

I submit that it is inadvisable that the letter from the J. G. Department

Sir,

Enclosures.

In returning the paper received under Political Endorsement No. 1663, dated 7th August 1897, I have the honour to state that there is no competent trained Subordinate Officer of this Department who can be lent to the Travancore State for six months on a salary of Rs 75 per mensem. The loan of the services of any First Grade Assistant Jailor would, in my opinion, be useless, and I have no officer whose deputation would be of any service on a less salary than Rs 150 per mensem.

2. If the Government of the Maharaja of Travancore had desired to place its Jail Department on an efficient footing, it would have done well to give the control of it to a trained Jail official from this or some other Presidency, instead of putting in a schoolmaster, who was necessarily ignorant of all aspects of Jail Administration. With the very small Staff of efficient officers at my disposal, it would be far from convenient to spare any one of them to the Travancore Government for six months, but if any one is sent, it should be an officer of sufficient experience to be of some use and on adequate salary.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

A. G. Cardew
Inspector-General of Jails

for that what Mr. Cardew has said regarding Mr. Dutt would look out well in certain desirable that he should do. I would suggest that a G.O. should issue "The Resident will inform the Durbar that the G.O. request re. (14-8-97) the fact

ORDER W. 567 of 25th Aug 97

The Resident will inform the Travancore Darbar that the Govt. regrets that there is no competent trained subordinate officer of the Madras Jail Dept. who can be lent to the Darbar on the proposed salary of Rs. 75 per mensem. The loan of the services of any First Grade Asst. Jailor would be useless for the purposes contemplated by the Darbar and the I.G. of Prisons reports that he has no officer whose deputation could be recommended lower of any use on a lower salary than Rs. 150 per mensem.
