Petition dated 25th May 1857 presented by Godala Vabala Reddi residing at Illur village Banaganapalli Taluk.

The ^{alleged} civil suit which the Nawab Fathalli Khan Bahadur instituted against me is as follow. I had monetary transactions with (1) Seshanna (2) Venkapa-Subbanna and (3) Vapayya of Kotha peta. Excluding the amount I have already paid I ~~was indebted to~~ them Rs 800. I executed a document in their favour consenting to ~~pay~~ the repay the debt in two yearly instalments of Rs 400. Instead of receiving payment in instalments according to my document they without giving me any notice ~~or~~ obtained an injunction in order against my property.

without giving me any information obtained an injunction ^{attachment} ~~in order~~ from the Nawab. No true transactions between these three persons and the Nawab ^{drawn from up} from a lengthy time and ~~and~~ as they have consented to agree to give the all which property of mine as a loan to the Nawab he was pleased to issue the order of attachment. In the my son nor myself ^{was} ~~were~~ present at the time of when the attachment took place. No notice was given to me. Breaking the locks and pushing ^{the} ~~away~~ females out of the three defendants of mine, 3 of their men, the person who brought the attachment order and the addi all entered my house illegally and attached all my moveable and immoveable property. Not being satisfied with this ^{the} ~~they~~ Nawab also ^{issued} ~~brought~~ a warrant of ~~arrest~~ for my arrest. I entered my house and found out how much loss was caused to my property.

I am not one without any a pauper as to justify them to adopt such a procedure for the ensuring the amount of Rs 800. I own the following property 4 bullocks of permanent patta land 8 bulles 2 buffaloes 2 carts 4 sets of agricultural implements 4 chaw + fodder heaps & 3 bika gardens. Besides, Rs 5000 due from Hasalli Khan Baka Baha dur. and Rs 1000 due from other small ryots. Listening listening to the advice of my defendants the nawab with the intention of disgracing such a well-to-do ryot like myself illegally issued orders for to carry away my property.
The nawab ^{being under the influence} ~~listening~~ ^{to the advice} of the rich men who lend him money is in the habit of causing loss to many families. He issued an order ^{of the sort} against me too. Although our nawab is one called as one governing according to the principles of British government (opposed to native Muhammadan Govt) yet he ~~never~~ is doing things contrary to the rules. Therefore I must

SIR,

I have the honour to submit herewith for orders a petition addressed to Government by one Godala Chalaraddi of Ilur in the Banganapalli State, complaining of the procedure adopted by the Nawab's Court in a certain Civil Suit to which he is a party. Being under the impression that this was intended to be a complaint against the Dewan, I invited the Nawab to offer his remarks on the allegations made therein. The Nawab returns the petition pointing out that it amounts to a complaint against him himself: he gives a brief account of what has occurred since the filing of various Suits suits against the petitioner. From what he states it does not appear that any injustice has been done.

I have the honour to be
your most obedient servant
