Read—the following papers:—

From W. H. MICHAEL, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 12th May 1897, No. 1487.

With reference to G.O., Mis. No. 280, Political, dated the 27th of April 1897, directing that the allowance of Rs. 250 attached to the office of Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, should be passed to Mr. Marsden, I have the honour to state that the office of Paymaster carries pay and not an allowance of Rs. 250 per mensem, and that as Mr. Marsden, Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, was placed in temporary charge of this office in addition to his own duties, his salary for the dual appointments should be regulated under article 184, Civil Service Regulations, under which he is entitled only to Rs. 1,000, the pay of his appointment as Inspector of Schools, Central Circle, which is the highest salary he can draw for both the appointments under clauses (i) and

(iii) of article 184. If this salary is not considered enough, Government can, under proviso (ii), grant him an allowance not exceeding Rs. 125 per mensem, being half the pay of the additional appointment (and not full pay) by dispensing with the proviso (iii) and making the declaration prescribed in rule 1 under that article. I request, therefore, that the order in question may be reconsidered.

From F. C. HARRISON, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 28th May 1897, No. 1654.

With reference to your memorandum No. 1057, Political, dated the 17th May 1897, I have the honour to state that my statement that the office of Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, carries pay and not an allowance of Rs. 250 per mensem, was made after reference to this office letter, No. 1127, dated 4th May 1885, to paragraph 2 of Madras G.O., No. 358, Political, dated 22nd May 1885, and to the Government of India, No. 2992-G., Foreign department, dated 29th October 1885.

Order—Mis. No. 450, Political, dated 10th July 1897.

The Government of India will be addressed.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) J. F. PRICE,
Chief Secretary.

To the Accountant-General.

Letter—Mis. No. 451, Political, dated 10th July 1897, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department.

In paragraph 2 of my letter, No. 372, Political, dated 5th June 1897, it was intimated that Mr. Marsden, Inspector of Schools and Acting Persian and Hindustani Translator to Government, had been placed in charge of the office of Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, on the vacation of that appointment by Colonel H. S. Stewart, and that it was the intention to continue this arrangement until the services of Lieutenant-Colonel Pryce became available. The local Accountant-General contends that the allowance of Rs. 250 attached to the office of Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, is pay and not a local allowance; that Mr. Marsden's salary should be regulated by article 184 of the Civil Service Regulations; that the highest allowance he can be granted for the post of Paymaster, so long as he holds it in addition to his appointment as Inspector of Schools, is Rs. 125; and that the grant of this allowance is contingent on the local Government making the declaration prescribed in Rule 1 to the above article. The Accountant-General bases his opinion upon paragraph 2 of Mr. Webster's letter, No. 358, Political, dated 22nd May 1885, in which the term "salary" occurs. The proposals in the latter were approved in Mr. Forbes' letter, No. 2992-G., dated 29th October 1885.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council considers that the additional responsibility and work devolving upon Mr. Marsden is such as to warrant the grant to him of the full allowance of Rs. 250. I am accordingly to request the sanction of the Government of India to this.

3. I am also to request that this Government may be furnished with a ruling as to whether the Rs. 250 attached to the Paymastership should be considered a "local allowance" or "pay." With reference to this point, I am to observe that it has not been customary for an absentee to draw any part of this allowance.

(Signed) J. F. PRICE,
Chief Secretary.

READ—also the following paper:—

From O. V. BOSANQUET, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 8th September 1897, No. 1365-G.

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter, in the Political Department, No. 451, dated the 10th July 1897, regarding the appointment of Mr. E. Marsden to hold charge of the office of Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, in addition to his own duties as Inspector of Schools and Acting Persian and Hindustani Translator to the Government of Fort St. George.

2. The Government of India agree with the Government of Fort St. George that the allowance of Rs. 250 attached to the office of Paymaster should be treated as a local allowance. The arrangement by which the duties and the allowance are temporarily given to Mr. Marsden, is sanctioned.
