DISTRICT MAGISTRATE, The Nilgiris,

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras
Political Department,

Through The Surgeon-General.

Sir

I have the honour to address Government on the subject of medical attendance for the Chitralli Chiefs.

2. Last year the Civil Surgeon, Surgeon Lieutenant Colonel Cook asked me whether they were entitled to free medical attendance at their residence. I replied that I thought so but that if he thought otherwise he might address the Surgeon-General.

3. In February this year, the same officer informed me demi-officially that he had just received the orders of Government that he was to be in medical charge on and

but said it would ask Surgeon-General's sanction & allowances that was all allowance of Rs 50/a month. These orders were not communicated to me.

4. In June, the present Civil Surgeon, Surgeon major Thompson forwarded to me for opinion & return Correspondence originating with the Government of India concerning this fixed allowance.

5. In July I had to ask the Civil Surgeon to attend the Chitralis at Brookhampton, where one was suffering from Stricture and another from diabetes.

6. On the 7th August the Civil Surgeon sent me the enclosed bill for professional attendance. As mentioned in my letter to Government regarding Khokhand Beg's health I have been awaiting the orders of Government as to the monthly allowance but now Surgeon-Major Thompson requests me to forward the bill to Government.

7. In forwarding the bill Surgeon-Major Thompson remarked: "I visited at Brookhampton on the dates given in the margin and have charged at the rate of Rs 20 per visit which is the charge I would make to any private individual residing at a similar distance from Chitramund."
