Sir,

With reference to your Memorandum No 1705 dated 13th August 1897, I have the honor to report that enquiry shows that the petitioner Chinnasami Naidu has a brother named Chinnaliya; that they are both maintained by one Gopala Swami Naidu, their brother-in-law — vide the genealogical table annexed — to whom a pension of Rs 20 was recently sanctioned by the Ceylon Government (Vide G.O. No 577 dated 26th August 1896); that Chinnasami Naidu (petitioner) is 60 years old and has one unmarried daughter aged 15; and that he has no means of support.

B

No records are forthcoming to show the circumstances under which the pension of Chilakalakoliki to which the petitioner lays claim lapsed to Government. It may, if Government sees no objection, be continued in his name.

2. The enclosure received with the endorsement under reply is herewith returned.

The Honourable the Colonial Secretary

Colombo.

Sir,

I am directed to forward a petition addressed to the Ceylon Govt.by Chinnaswami Nayudu,who states that he is the son of late Kandyan pensioner Chilakalakoliky and grandson of late Kandyan pensioner Subba Nayudu, together with copy of a report thereon by the Collector of North Arcot. The petitioner claims the continuation of the pension of P.3/8 per mensem drawn by Chilakalakoliky.

2. From the records of this Govt. it appears that Subba Nayudu,who is shown in the geneological tree accompanying the Collector's report as the grandfather of the petitioner, was in receipt of a pension of P.1"/8 per mensem and that on his death in Jany. 1857 a sum of P.7 was continued to his son, Narayudu, and R.3-8-0 to his daughter Chilakalakoliky, in accordance with the recommendation made in the letter from this Govt.No.159, Poll., d/23rd February 1857 and approved by the Govt. of Ceylon, in a communication from the Hon'ble the Colonial Secretary No.21, dated 7th April 1857. Chilakalakoliky died on the 16th August 1859 and Narayudu commuted his pension in Vellore about 1875. In August 1865 Gopalaswami and Muthiyalu alias Ramaswami, sons of Venkatakrishnappa, another son of Subba Nayudu, petitioned the Govt. of Ceylon through this Govt. for a pension. Their request was supported by the Sub Collector of N.Arcot, but the Madras Govt. refused to recognise their claim on the ground that the share of the original pension continued to their uncle and aunt-Narayudu and Chilakalakoliky- for the support of the family on Subba Nayudu's death was as much as could have been recommended in any case, and that a claim for an addition to it made for the first time six years afterwards could not be entertained. In 1895 Gopalaswami Nayudu petitioned the Ceylon Govt. and in consequence of a favourable report by the Govt. Agent, Tanjore, on his memorial, which was referred to this Govt. with the Colonial Secretary's letter, dated 30th September 1895, the Govt. of Ceylon granted him a pension of R.5-13-4 per mensem from the 1st January 1896-vide letter from the

3. From the report of the Collector of N.Arcot enclosed with the present communication, it would appear that the petitioner Chinnaswami Nayudu and his brother Chinnappa are supported by Goralaswami Nayudu, who is their brother-in-law; that Chinaswami Nayudu is 60 years of age and has an unmarried daughter aged 15 and that he has no independent means of support.
