To

Lieut:-Col. Sir George Montgomerie Moore, Kt. C.I.E.

Sir,

I am directed by H.E. the Governor in Council to forward to you Letters Patent conferring upon you the dignity of Knighthood ~~which has been~~ received through the India Office.

I have etc.

NOTE

This follows the precedent in G.O.No.444 Poll., d/ 8th June 1887, but it will be seen from that case that when Sir Savalai Ramaswami Mudaliyar had the dignity of Knighthood conferred upon him he had to pay a sum of £97-14-6 as the amount of expenses incurred in the preparation of the Letters Patent. No such demand has been received in the present case and no mention of the point is therefore necessary in the draft. The paper is circulated to H.E. the Governor as he may wish that the presentation should take the some other form than that of an ordinary letter.
