The humble petition of Sadulath Whatu
Bi Bi Sahiba daughter of Mohamed Khayy Khan? Khider Khan Bahadur who was the son of the late Nawab of Kurnool.

Respectfully Sheweth

1. That your honor's humble petitioner is the sole heir left by her father Mohamed Khider Khan Bahadur recently deceased.
- M 2. That he left behind him three widows, of whom only Subhan Whatu Sahiba the mother of the petitioner who belongs to the Moghul sect, was legally married to him and was therefore
"Shadi wife"
3. That the other two widows. Proshan Whatu sahiba who belongs to the Sheikh sect among the Mussalmans, and Hidayath Whatu sahiba who belongs to the prostitute class, - were simply taken by him as wives, the only Ceremony observed being that of presentation and wearing of cloths, and these two were therefore "nichawines?"

4. That these two ladies are far below the mothers of your honor's humble petitioner in points of respectability and Caste, but petitioner learns they have been allowed equal shares with your petitioner and her mother.

5. That your honor's humble petitioner is the grand daughter of the late Nawab of Tarnool, being the daughter of his own Son, the deceased Mohamed Kider Khan Bahadur.

6. That under the Mahamadan law your honor's humble petitioner is entitled to a half of the pension of her deceased father and the remaining half of it has to be given away to the remaining widows, named above with due regard to their status.

7. That as a precedent your honor's humble petitioner begs leave to refer to the Case of late Yakub Khata Bibi

Sahiba the daughter of the late Nawab of Kurnool (and also sister of the petitioner's father) who was being paid at Rs 150 - a month.

8. That her mother Amir Whatu Bi Bi Sahiba was being paid Rs 60-0-0 a sum less than the daughter's allowance evidently because the daughter is is Considered higher than the mother for the purposes of pension.
9. That your honor's humble petitioner submits, that the fact that she was under her father's protection until his death, may be taken into Consideration in determining the degree in the pension scale to which she belongs.
10. That your honor's humble petitioner requests that your honor may take into Consideration the fact that unlike the other two widows the petitioner's mother was the "Shadi wife" of the petitioner's father, and other Circumstances and order that the petitioner and her mother may be given larger shares than the petitioner's step mothers and not placed on the same footing.

For which act of kindness and generosity your honor's humble petitioner shall ever pray for your long life and prosperity.

Your Most obedient Servant
