Abstract of Judgment of Chief Kazi of Madras On 15th November 1897 one Khader Begum, In-pen Begum alias Burhan. Amin Begum submitted a Petition in my Court praying for a Certificate of her ship as a Shadi wife of Kari : mulla Khan Bahadur deceased, because the other mulla wives of the deceased reported to the Court of fact that she had been divorced by the deceased which is utterly false; I am Shadi wife of the deceased living together for some time but after : wards some misunderstandings arose between us on account of his mulla wives and concubines I was living separate some time in my father's house and some time in a rented house but the deceased was paying me Rs 10 per month for my maintenance through his mulla wife Amin Begum Bahadur I use to go to the deceased house to see my mother-in-Law (deceased mother) and she use to come to my house to see me the deceased never caused any objection : then I went to the deceased house when he is sick and stayed there till his death and after his death I per: formed usual ceremonies as wife; Upon this petition were issued by the Court printed on the public places of the town and also served to the heirs of the said deceased asking him to appear before the Court and to make the objections, if any, for not granting a Certificate to the petitioner as prayed for, as none appear the Court took depositions of the deceased and the Affiant. Amrta Begum Sahibai on solemn affirmation she states that the petitioner is the shade wife of the son Karamulla Khan Bahadur deceased on account of some family dispute the petitioner was living separately but the deceased was maintaining her and was paying her an income allowance of Rs 10 through one of his slaves but the deceased did not divorce her the dowry is Rs 11,000 and 39 tolas of pure gold; the Court also took the depositions of Abdul Khader Sali brother of the deceased he swears that the deceased did not divorce the petitioner, if it so I or my father would have filed a suit in Civil Court for the amount of dowry, and also the Court took the depositions of the deceased's eldest son Mohamed Inayatullah Sahib and Mohamed Atamulla Sahib younger son of the deceased they state on solemn affirmation that their father the deceased did not divorce the petitioner if he had done so he would have not talking with the petitioner when she comes to the deceased house to see our grandfather the Affiant Amrta Begum Sahib and also on 26 November 1897 Gholam Mohamed Khan Sali (petitioner's father) wrote a statement Khan Bahadur) to the Prince of Ahrat is ten in number including the petitioner (Abdullah wife of the deceased) and also a petition of Sahibullah Begum was attested by by him and others are believing my attestation to be true I then withdrew the attestation because the statement of divorcing of the petitioner is merely what he heard and he finds no proper reason to believe the statement to be true and cancelled attestation and he added one more to the list of the heirs including the petitioner now the total number of heirs are 11 in number. Upon reading the petition of Khadija Begum (the petitioner) and hearing the statement of Khadija Begum and Majid Begum Begum Sahib, Muhammad Hussain Sahib and Muhammad Kanna Sahib and reading the statement sent by Gholam Muhammad Sahib and 2 copies of letters sent by Muhammad Kanna Sahib to Khan Bahadur to the Prince of Ahrat. The Court ordered and decreed that the petitioner Khadija Begum is the child of the deceased Khan Bahadur and he did not need her (the petitioner) on the following grounds viz:- 1stly the deceased it is clearly proved that the deceased was maintaining the petitioner till his death - 2ndly the petitioner was living in the house of the deceased at the time of his sickness, if the petitioner had been divorced the other heirs of the deceased would not allow her to enter in the house 3rdly. If the petitioner

Thai: The late Karamulla Khan Bahadur married your petitioner and was living together for some time but on account of some disputes which arose from his sister's wife and her children your petitioner was living separately and was maintaining her till his death

After the death of Karamulla Khan Bahadur the mother wife of the deceased (reported to the Prince of Wales) that the deceased survived her and excluded from her name from the list of the sons of the Karamulla Khan Bahadur submitted to the Prince of Wales

From petitioners submitted a petition to the Chief Magistrate of Madras praying for a certificate of kinship of the late Karamulla Khan Bahadur and obtaining a judgment from the Madras Court the original and its abstract in English is herewith enclosed for your Lordship's kind perusal

Under the foregoing circumstances your petitioners most respectfully request your Lordship will be graciously pleased to pass an order to include from her name in the list of sons of the late Karamulla Khan Bahadur and a decision may be issued her name out of the list of her late husband
