PETITION

REVENUE DEPT.

Handwritten text in Tamil script, likely a petition or official document, covering the right page of the spread. The text is written in a cursive style and appears to be a formal request or report.

The peti. states that the father of the present Nawab of Banganapalle had granted to him certain inams, houses &c which the present Nawab wrested from the peti. and conferred on another. The peti. still keeps with him the sanads granted to him by the old Nawab. When the settlement of the Banganapalle taluk was taking place the peti. appeared before the Settlement Officer, showed him the sanads which gave the peti. a right over the inams &c above referred to, and requested him to grant pattahs in his name and put him in possession of the lands. The peti. therefore prays that the Settlement Officer may be directed to put him in possession of the lands in question.
