Sir Arthur Edibank Havelock

The Governor in Council.
Fort Saint George.

The humble petition of Anna
tullah Muhammadath-un-nissaw Begam and others,
shadee daughters of His late Highness the third Prince of Arcot.

May it please your Excellency.

Memorialists beg leave humbly to approach your Excellency with this their humble memorial with a view to receive their redress at your Excellency's generous hands.

Memorialists are the sha-dee daughters of His late Highness Inthizamul-Mulk Bahadur, the third Prince of Arcot, who prior to his demise sent a letter through the Paymaster of the Carnatic Stipendiaries, containing his wishes regarding the disposal of his personal allowance of Rs 900, per mensem and Rs 100 house rent. His Highness' wishes were recorded in G.O. dated 15th

November 1886. No. 989 Para 2 of which runs thus:— B

"When the time comes the Govt. will be prepared to take steps for obtaining house rent allowance for his shadee wife and daughters so that they shall not be in a worse position than they were before he became the Prince of Arcot."

Such being the case memorialists beg respectfully to crave that the above expressions of Govt. were a sort of guarantee to them, but they are ~~now~~ left destitute of the house-rent allowances, whereas on the other hand the Nikah^{ee} members of the family of His late Highness the Second Prince of Arcot are enjoying the privilege of house-rent allowances and memorialists who are the shadee daughters of the late third Prince of Arcot, are deprived of an indulgence which was promised by the Govt. three years prior to the death of their lamented father. They are now in a worse position than they were before their father became Prince, a condition which the Govt. did not wish to see them in, as expressed in para 2 of the above quoted Govt. order. Memorialists were living with their father before he became the Prince, in the family house hired by their father at ^{di}Shaw^{di} Mahal for a rental of Rs 100, which their father received from Govt. as house-rent, but now they are obliged to pay house-rents out of their allowances, which are not sufficient to maintain their increasing families, keeping up at the same time their positions as the ^{di}shadee daughters of the late third Prince of Arcot.

Under the foregoing circumstances Your Excellency's memorialists, beg humbly to submit that their case may be taken into your Excellency's benign consideration and disposed of on its merits.

For which act of justice and benevolence ^{memorial} shall, as in duty bound ever pray.

that they were in such straitened circumstances as to justify the Govt. ⁱⁿ

continuing the house rent to them.
