Note The history of the petitioners case is contained in letter No.
500 P.O. of 23rd July 1888 which forwarded ~~them~~ ^{from them} memorial to the Govt. of India. This memorial was rejected. vide G.O. No. 577 P.O. of 20th August 1888. In 1888 Govt.

told the petitioners that they had been treated with liberality. [S.O.
No. 253 P.M. of 4 April 1888.] The present petition written almost ten years later is a mild attempt to revive the question by reverting to the matter of the grantmaster's pension & omitting any mention of the main facts of the case.
