Most respectfully Sheweth

Your petitioners most humbly beg kind consideration hoping to meet with success

Your petitioners are the shadi sons of Khanulla Khan Bahadur and after his death a list of the heirs of the said deceased was submitted to the Prince of Arcot for a usual report, but they understand that the Prince of Arcot did not report according to the Rules and Customs of the Arcot family viz the miska children should behave & marry of the shadi children on the ground that he reported according to the division made in 2^d Prince of Arcot's family; for which your petitioners submit that was done first and according to the terms of the Will executed by the 2^d Prince of Arcot and not to the rules and custom of the Arab family. And that Will did not send for petitioners and all the other members of the 2^d Prince of Arab's family; and according to rules of the Nawab Valiyah the miska children ^{were} ~~are~~ entitled to one fifth (1/5) of the share children

Yam petitioners further beg to enclose a draft for the rules and custom of the Arab family signed by the member of the 2^d Prince of Arab but Mohamedi Fazaulla Khan Bahadur, Mohamed Karamatulla Khan Bahadur, Safa Khatun Begum and Hafizunnisa Begum did not sign it because they are the widows and sisters of Jam petitioners' step mother Salih Bee (miska widow of the deceased)

Under the foregoing circumstances

 Lordship pass an order according to the rules — referred to by grand them double spend than the
