2. The elephants are stationed within 15 miles of the Nanjangud railway station and may be inspected on three days' previous notice to the Khedda Superintendent or Field Inspector.

3. Applications should be sealed and registered and superscribed "Tender for Elephants" and reach the undersigned at Bangalore on or before the 28th February next, specifying the Serial No. of elephants and the highest price offered for each accompanied by a sum of Rs. 50 as earnest money for each elephant.

4 Within three days of receipt of intimation of acceptance of any tender, such amount as with the earnest money will make up 25 per cent of the tendered amount should be remitted, failing which the earnest money will be forfeited to Government and the acceptance of tender be considered cancelled. The balance of purchase money must be paid within ten days from receipt of intimation of acceptance of offer and the animals taken charge of, failing which they will be entirely at the risk of the tenderer and Rs. 5 per day per elephant will be charged for feed and attendance. If within a fortnight from the latter date (i. e. from the date an elephant is at the risk of the tenderer) it is not fully paid for and removed it will be liable to be re-sold, any loss on such re-sale being recovered from the tenderer as a revenue demand.

6. Elephants must be conveyed by purchasers to their destination at their own cost and risk, but needful assistance will be rendered as regards mahouts and kumki elephants if purchasers are willing to bear the charges which must be deposited with the undersigned.

7. The earnest money of rejected tenders will be returned as well as the 25 per cent of the tender amount paid if the elephant dies within ten days of the communication of the acceptance of the tender. Any surplus of money deposited under para 6 will also be refunded, purchasers being liable for any excess expenditure which will be recoverable as a revenue demand.

8. The undersigned reserves the right to accept or reject any tender without assigning any reason.

on Friday evening that it would be probably too late to cancel
the notice but that I was not certain
as no date is given in the "Elephant Sale Notice".

NOTE FOR THE Chief Asstt.

I do not know at what time this paper was received in the Post Dr[illegible] as I was working upstairs on Friday. From the 21st up to the 25th evening the paper appears to have been in the Public Dr[illegible].

As regards the term "Kumki Elephants" I cannot get any information. I consulted Naragana Menon of the Rev Dr[illegible] who could not give me any information. I consulted Wilsons Glossary & some other books: the term does not appear in any of these. Probably they ask 'Kumki elephant' means "tamed elephants".
