Kulsum Bibi is informed with reference to her petition dated 6th October 1897, that as the Stipend of Rs 75 per mensem drawn by her late father Carnatic Stipendiary No 4560 Sultzan Khan Bahadur is returned as "moiety to widow" in the list of Continuable heirship, her claim for a Continuance therefrom is inadmissible under the Rules.

The humble petition
of Kulsum Bibi, No 65
Monsbray Road, Royapet
Madras.

May it please Your Excellency,

That petitioner's father Sultzan Khan Bahadur who was in receipt of a Carnatic Stipend of Rs 75 as per receipt No 4550
& 4593 died on 31st May 1897.

That petitioner and her children were under her father's protection. If the petitioner's mother had been alive, she could have received a moiety from her father's Stipend
as may be seen from the enclosed endorsement from the Pay-Master, Carnatic Stipends. It is to the petitioner's great misfortune that her mother died before her father, otherwise her mother would have got a compassionate allowance of Rs 37-8-0, under the existing rules and that the petitioner
and her children would have been left under her mother's care and protection.

That petitioner begs to submit to your Excellency that Government has been generous.

generous and sympathetic to consider from time to time applications similar to hers where the wife of a stipendiary died before her husband and where the family is unprovided for.

That petitioner begs to submit that She belongs to a very respectable family (now almost reduced to poverty) being a Shadi grand daughter of the late madar-ul-Umra Bahadur, Prime Minister of the last Nawab of the Carnatic and hopes that your Excellency will be pleased to consider favourably her application for a charitable allowance from her father's lapsed stipend of Rs 75 per mensem and afford her immediate relief in her distress.

That petitioner begs to quote as follows a few of the several cases where Government has been pleased to sanction stipends to persons other than their widows, the stipends held by their ancestors being likewise returned as "Society to widows" in the list of Continuable pensions.

No	Stipendiaries Names	To whom stipends was granted in the absence of a widow	Remarks.
1.	Mir Ghulam Mohiddin Saib Carnatic Stipendiary No 2 163 Bearing Rs 50/- per mensem.	Children of a predeceased Nikaah	1891.
2.	Muhammad Nakisaid Bakshi al Hulk 132	Widow after Her death her daughter
3	Firazish Khan Bahadur Carnatic Stipendiary No 1151 drawing Rs 150 per mensem.	Daughter-in-law	1894.
4	Moulvi Shahabuddin Saib	Daughter.

your Excellency will be pleased to pardon your petitioner when she begs to invite your Excellency's attention to the fact that the Government of India and the Home Government have always exerted measures for the protection of respectable families.

For which act of charity the petitioner Shall ever pray.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St. George.

Sir,

With reference to your Endorsement No. 325 dated 7th Instant, on petition Current No. 154 from one Kulsum Bibi, I have the honour to report that petitioner being a daughter of the late Jamatic Stipendiary No. 560 and 593 Intizam Khan Bahadur who was on 1856 ~ Pensioner, has no claim for a continuation (under the existing rules) out of the lapsed stipend of Rs75 which her late father was drawing as an officer of the last Nawab of the Carnatic under G.Os. Nos. 290 & 64 dated 25th September 1863 and 12th March 1869 respectively and which Stipend is returned "moiety to widow" in part II appendix B to G.O. No. 135 dated 1st March 1897 "Political". But taking into consideration the fact that her husband is unemployed and she with her husband and children were entirely under her father's support and the fact that she is a grand daughter of the late Madar. Mb. Purnia Bahadur the Diwan of the last Nawab of the Carnatic her case may be exceptionally treated on the grounds grounds that, had her mother survived her father, she would have been entitled to a moiety of the lapsed Stipend, a concession that was shown to a son and daughter-in-law respectively of 2 similar officers of the last Nawab of the Carnatic in the absence of their wives under G.Os marginally cited.

2. " No 186 dt 12th March 1894

2. Should Government be pleased to extend their bounty on her, under the circumstances as stated above, I would beg to recommend that a sum of Rs 10/ten humdeen may be granted to her, as a Special case, on charitable grounds with effect from 25th January 1898 — the date of her petition to Government and to lapse absolutely on her demise.

SUBJECT.

Petition of Kulsum Bibi that she may be granted a charitable allowance from her father's lapsed Stipend.

FOR ORDERS.

The Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends reports with reference to Endt. No. 325 dated 7th February 1898 on the petition of Kulsum Bibi, who prays for a continuation from the pension (Rs 75) of her father Indizam Khan Bahadur, Carnatic Stipendiary Nos 4553 and 4593, who died on the 31st May 1897.

2. Indizam Khan Bahadur derived his pension from two sources. He was granted a pension first of Rs 50/- per mensem by G.O. No. 290, Pol., dated 25th Septr. 1863, from the allowances of H.H. Khair-un-nisa Begum, and then Rs 25/- per mensem by G.O. No. 64, Pol., dated 12th March 1864, for ancestral and personal services.

2. These combined pensions were in the 1886 revised lists of Carnatic Stipends, treated as non-continuable, but in accordance with the decision then arrived at a moiety would have been available on his death, for the registered wives of Intizam Khan, [See G.O. No 359, Pol., dated 22nd May 1885] Bahadur. The Stipend is accordingly shown as No. 25 in Part II of Appendix B to G.O. No. 135, Pol., dated 1st March 1897, amongst those on which widows have claims for compassionate allowances. The wife of Intizam Khan Bahadur appears to have predeceased him and her daughter Kulsum Bibi, the present petitioner has, as the P.C. S. points out, no claim for the continuance to her of any portion of the Stipend.

2. The petitioner submits, however, that hers is one of those Special cases in which Govt. may see fit to make an exception and grant an allowance on the grounds that-

(1) She belongs to a respectable family, being a Shadi granddaughter of the late Muskar-ul-Umra, Prime Minister of the late Nawab of the Carnatic (2) She now almost reduced to poverty, and

(3) She and her children were under her late father's protection, and if her mother had survived her father the family would have been in receipt of a compassionate allowance of Rs 37-8-0.

3. The P.C. S adds

that the petitioner's husband is unemployed, and, in recommending her case for special consideration, brings forward two precedents. In both the cases the compassionate allowance, which in accordance with the rules would have descended to the widow had she not predeceased her husband, was conferred on other deserving relatives.

4. The first case is that disposed of by G.O. No. 327, Pol., dated 19th July, 1870 when an allowance of Rs 25 per mensem was granted to Abdoo Rahman Mahomed Sahib, the son of an officer of the late Navab, for the following reasons:-

(1). That he was of weak intellect

(2). That if the widow had survived she would have been entitled to Rs 50 per mensem, in which case the petitioner would not have needed support.

(3). That the stipend enjoyed by the father being a Class) one (Rs 150) its withdrawal would necessarily cause distress to the family — When this allowance was granted it was, however, distinctly understood that the grant would not form a precedent.

5. The second case was disposed of by G.O. No. 16, Pol, dated 12th March 1894 in this case the daughter-in-law of Nawab Sirajish Khan Bahadur, who was not legally entitled to any pension, was granted a compassionate allowance of Rs 15 per mensem on the following grounds:-

(1). That she was in a state of destitution consequent on the death of her father-in-law who had been her sole means of by the grant of of Rs 10. per mensem in charitable grounds, with effect from the 25th January 1898 (the date of her petition)

... that even had her father-

From the above it will
...e seen that the precedent
...quoted is in some respects
...milar to the case under consideration. There are however some points of difference. The present petitioner is a closer
relative of the deceased stipendiary, (viz. his daughter), but through in being reduced circumstances
she has a husband to whom she can look for protection, whereas the lady in the precedent
was a widow precluded
by the customs of her

Lect from remarrying as
thus providing for her.
The husband of Kulsum Bibi is, however, out of employ, and has himself
been dependent on his father-in-law. The case is, it is submitted, one for a compassionate grant.
