GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Dear Mr. Anand.

As asked in your D.O. of 11th inst, I enclose a note by Mr. Lyon of the arrangements for seating at the Institution ceremony.

The cushion & table cloth were made by Messrs & Co to my order, & have been returned
to you -

You sent me a chair

cover with an incorrect star on it, which latter I utilized on the chair in which His Ex. sat.
I can return this star
to you, & also let you have the velvet the chair was covered with.
It would not be of much use for any other chair, but could be used again for the same, ~~as~~ which is one of three state chairs we have.

I also had a footstool

covered, & this cover I can send you. It would not be of any use for any other but this state footstool however.

Am I to settle the bills for expenses incurred in connection with the ceremony. Some are paid.
Shall I recover all or any of these expenses?

Yours sincerely

F. P. Smith
