The humble petition of Kumaravadivelu Rayah Second son of Kumaravadivelu = Saraswathy Rayah brother of 1st & 2nd late Queens, of Kandy now residing at Pilampathy Tirumayam Taluq Pudukotta Territory

Most Respectfully Sheweth

That humble Petitioner most respectfully solicits leave to bring these few lines of the Petitioners circumstances for your Excellency's compassionate consideration and favorable order.

That owing to some misunderstandings that exist between himself and his brother The Petitioner applied to the Ceylon Government to decide the pension of his father equally between himself and his brother quoting G. O. No 47 Dated 5th February 1874 and 655 dated 30th November 1874 In reply to that petition he is directed by the Government of Tanjore to submit authenticated Copies of the Government orders, Sanctioning the similar decision of pension

That the poor Petitioner most earnestly craves your Excellency will be graciously pleased to grant to the Petitioner the authenticated Copies of orders of the Local Government noted in the Margin.

For which act of charity and benevolence the Petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray
