The Chief Secretary to the

Dated Simla, the 28th May 1898.

Indian Empire. Sir,

I am directed by His Excellency the Grand Master to acknowledge the A receipt of your letter, No: 253, (Political), dated the 14th April 1898, in which you suggest that it would be a great convenience if local Governments were furnished with a list of members of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire resident in India, and if changes in the list were notified notified from time to time.

2. In reply, I am to say that there is no separate list of resident members and that the labour involved in the preparation of such a list showing addresses would scarcely be balanced by any advantage that might accrue from it to Local Governments. Reprints of a general list of members of the Order are, however, struck off after the 1st of January in each year, and a copy of each such reprint will be regularly supplied to you in future. A copy of the latest reprint corrected up to date is sent herewith.

3. For the rest, I am to observe that it is to Local Governments themselves that the Office of the Order in India looks to notify changes from time to time, and once in five years to check the list of members exhaustively. There is no other convenient means of ascertaining casualties among members resident in Madras or elsewhere, unless it be the Home and Indian news-papers, which are generally to be relied upon in matters of this kind, and which are available to Local Governments.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. Daly

Note The present lists are an advantage. As regards the remarks of the Secy. with reference to the maintenance of the lists it is of course necessary that the Offices of the Indian Empire other Star of India should receive regular information from local Govts; but it is surely the ~~Sub~~ work of the Secretary of those orders to keep his lists up to date
