From

J. D. Rees. Esq: C. I. E.
Resident in Travancore & Cochin

To

The Chief Secretary to Government
Cotacarnund.

Sir,

A With reference to G. O. No. 54 Judicial dated 11th January 1898, I have the honor to inform you that the Travancore Durbar has taken steps to introduce the system of identification by means of finger tip impressions and for such impressions being in future supplied to British Police officers in the place of the Anthropometrical measurements now furnished.

2. The Cochin Durbar is prepared to adopt the system and with this view it proposes to depute an Inspector of Police to study it under the District Superintendent of Police, Malabar. I beg, therefore, to request that Govt will be pleased to direct the Inspector General of Police to arrange for the Inspector deputed being given the necessary training. Upon an intimation to this effect being received the Inspector will be desired to present himself before the Calicut Superintendent.

I have the honor to be,
Sir
Your most obedt Servt

J D Rees
