In G.O.No.326 Poll., d/12th May 1898, a compassionate life grant of Rs.6-4-0 per mensem was granted to G. Appala Raju Bhupati, an illegitimate son of ^{Late} Golconda pensioner ~~the late~~ Sanyasi Bhupati. Please see the note flagged Z in the original of that order. The Acct. Genl. points out that it is necessary that these proceedings should be reported to the Govt. of India for confirmation as was done in the case of G.O.No. 240 Judl., d/5th Feb. 1897 and No.491 Judl., d/13th July 1888, when allowances were granted to the mother and sister of ~~the late~~ Appala Raju Bhupati.

2 In this connection attention is solicited to the letter to the Govt. of India No.52 Poll., d/28th Jan. 1891, in which the endeavours to place all political pensions paid in this Presy. on a proper footing were pointed out ^{and} to the Govt. of India in which it was suggested that the local Govt. should be declared to possess similar powers in regard to all political pensions as it then had in regard ^{to} Carnatic pensions of 1801, vide clause 2, of paragraph 3 of the same letter. The Golconda pensions, to which class that of Sanyasi Bhupati belonged [vide] paragraphs 48-59 of the printed note attached to G.O.No.30 Poll., d/17th Jan. 1891 ¹ were mentioned as class (i) in paragraph 2 of that letter and in ^{were referred to} the fourth clause of paragraph 3. The Govt. of India in reply vide its letter in G.O.No.239 Poll., d/1st May 1891 — ^T and approved of the proceedings that ^{had been} passed by this Govt. and authorized ^{Madras} the Govt. of India to exercise in respect of all pensions dealt with in the letter of Jan. 1891 the powers which it then possessed in dealing with Carnatic stipends of 1801.

It is true that in the present case a compassionate grant has been made for special reasons, but such compassionate ^{anti} grounds are made in the case of Carnatic Stipends and there appears to be no reason why this Govt. should be compelled to go up to the Govt. of India.

It is submitted that the Acct. Genl's attention may be called to the correspondence of 1891. A draft order is submitted for approval
