Honored Sir,

In obedience to your honor's Endorsement on petition 134/acc of 98 dated 19-4-98, forwarding for report the petition of Vepandramma, addressed to the Ceylon Government, applying for life pension, I beg to report as follows:—

The petitioner Vepandramma resides in the Kasiappa Maistry Street, Chittoor. She is a Shosha lady aged about 50 or 55 years. The marginally noted 3 persons related to the petitioner say, that her husband Subroyalu Naidu, who owned some lands in the Karaguntu Estate, sold them 10 years ago and has since then been a tenant not being able to maintain himself, much less his wife. It seems to be true that Vepandramma has been forsaken. She is said to be depending on her relatives for her maintenance —

She has no issues - She is old and feeble, being ghosha, is unable to take to any means of livelihood. She is really in distressed circumstances.

The endorsement under reply is herewith submitted.

Political Department.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith a petition addressed to the Ceylon Government by Veeraedsamma of Chittoor, daughter of the late Doraisami Rajah, a Kandian headsman, praying for the grant of a life pension for her livelihood, on the grounds that her husband has forsaken her without making any provision for her maintenance and that he has no ostensible means of livelihood, that she has neither son nor daughter to depend on, and that she is now 55 years old and quite destitute. She states that pensions have been granted before in similar circumstances.

2 The Tahsildar of Chittoor Taluq reports in his arzi dis No 930 dated 20th June 1898, (Copy Enclosed) that the petitioner is really in distressed circumstances, having been deserted by her husband, and that she is dependant upon on her relatives for her maintenance.
