To

Governor of Ft St George

Through The Collector
Kistna

The humble petition of Atah Ullah Khan State prisoner

Sheweth;

That he wishes to collect money due to him in Tanjore and other places

2. That he has already many times stated that he is troubled by his creditors. If the petitioner does not collect what is owing to him he cannot live.

3. The amount allowed for his maintenance is insufficient and it will be unnecessary if the petitioner is allowed to collect the dues

4. The petitioner promises not to go to Puducottah as the petitioner believes that the Bristish Government will get it for him

For Orders

On receipt of Alta

G.O. 760 Pol / 30.11.97 Y Ulla Khan's petition dt 21.10.97 dealt with in the note at V, the Collector of Kistna was directed to send for the man and to remind him that it is by his own wish he is permitted to reside in Kistna instead of being deported to Kabul, & that the alternative to residence in Kistna is deportation to Kabul. vide G.O. 760 Pol

Q dt 30.11.97 and D.O. therein

Note

A full account of Alta. Ullah Khan will be gathered from the note flagged V in G.O. No. ~~360~~ 760 Pol. dt 30.11.97.

Cmd

2. The petition recorded

Z in G.O. R No 361 Pol dt 7.12.97 was a verbatim copy of that at Y.

3. In the petition now forwarded Alta Ulla Khan says he wishes to collect money due to him in Tanjore & other places; that the sum allowed for his maintenance is insufficient, & would be unnecessary if he was permitted to collect his dues; and promises not to go to Pudukkottai as he believes Govt will collect his dues from that State for him. Y He asks that the Govt (1) will settle his account ~~for~~ with the Pudukkottai State and (2) permit him to collect his dues elsewhere in person.

In other words, notwithstanding repeated warnings that if he gives trouble he will be deported, he asks for the reopening of a case which has been finally settled. vide note at V (G.O. 760 Pol d/ 30-11-97)

Orders are solicited.

4. In his letter No 458 W d/ 16.11.97 recorded in G.O. 760 Pol d/ 30.11.97 the ~~Collector~~ Political Agent, Pudukkottai states that Atta Ulla Khan's family had not joined him at Masulipatam, his wife being involved in a civil suit which would detain her at Pudukkottai until the 23 December '97. When in January last petitioner asked that his family might be sent to him at Masulipatam, the Political Agent was requested to report if they were at liberty to do so. G.O. 114 Pol d/ 14.2.98 X No reply has yet been received. A reminder was sent on the 1st instant
