The humble application of

Jayore

Sir

I beg respectfully to state that I studied English up to the matriculation standard and appeared for the said examination last year, but I unfortunately failed to secure a pass having been incapacitated by indisposition brought on by hard study, just at the eve of that examination.

It is a pity that I am not able to continue to be a student owing to my peculiar circumstances.

So rendered on account of the inadequacy of my pension Compelling me more towards securing an appointment to enable me to live Consistently with my rank and position in life than towards making efforts to go on with my studies to pass off successfully the necessary examinations qualifying me for Public service.

Although I am an unpassed Candidate still I beg to be permitted to say that I have acquired as much of the English language as is required for the satisfactory discharge of a function.

I know English, Tamil and Maharatti and have kept herewith specimens of my hand-writing in English and Tamil.

of Tanjore and they were employed as Sub-Registrars at the outset more over I submit that very recently the case of one Mr. Bangaru Raja of the same family was also favourably considered by the Government.

As you are well acquainted with my merits as well as the present state of my circumstances I pray that you will be kind enough to recommend for exemption from the Examination Rules and entertainment in the Registration Department as a Sub-Registrar, my case deserving special recognition at the hands of Her Majesty's Government who encourage young men of my status in life having at heart their welfare.

Hoping you will have the goodness to advocate my Cause.

"Heaven helps those who help themselves" is a well-tried maxim, embodying in a small compass the result of vast humane experience. The spirit of self-help is the root of all genuine growth in the individual; and, exhibited in the lives of many, it constitutes the source of national vigour and strength. Help from without is often enfeebling in its effects, but help from within invariably invigorates.
Whatever is done to men or classes, to a certain extent takes away the stimulus and necessity of doing for themselves.

Sir,

I beg to submit that I had a regular Scholastic course for a period of about 13 years and applied for the Entrance Examination last year but I regret I failed in my attempt.

Although I am anxious to continue my studies and to pass off the examination yet I am unable to do so, the stipend which I get being scarcely enough to maintain my large family.

I request you to excuse me for the presumption of my saying that my knowledge in English is sufficient to enable me to carry out my duties to the satisfaction of my Superiors under whom I might be employed.

Instances are not wanting to show that cases of persons of similar descent of similar circumstances have been favourably considered by the kind Government

So I request you to be kind enough to recommend that I may be Excepted from passing the necessary Examinations for my admission into the public

For this act of kindness I shall feel ever grateful.

4. The Manager of the School well of them. I have seen them and think that they might be given that they may be exempted from the examination rules.

5. I may add that Mr. R. R. Sundof the Kandyan Family, have similarly been provided for in the Registration Department. The former is the great-grandson of the brother-in-law of in Tanjore, and the latter is the adopted son of 4th ex-Rani of Kandy. The former was entertained as a probationary Sub Registrar on Rs 15, and the latter as a Sub protum Sub Registrar on Rs 30.

The educational qualifications of both were similar to those of the petitioners, as they studied only up to the Matriculation

TO

The Honourable G. Stokes, I.C.S.,

Chief Secretary to Government,

Madras, 18th. August 1898.

Sir,

Referring to Endorsement No.1719, Judicial, dated 15th. Instant on a letter from the Collector and Government Agent, Tanjore, I have the honour to state that it does not seem desirable to appoint the applicants therein referred to to the post of Subregistrars or even Probationers. Their educational qualifications are not such as to justify the hope that they will be able to acquire a fair knowledge of the Regulations and Rules of the department and of the Stamp Law so as to be in a position to discharge the duties of a Subregistrar without placing themselves at the mercy of their subordinates. There are already four members of the Kandy and Tanjore ^x (Royal families (all "exempted" men) serving in the department as Subregistrars, and, with one exception, none of them has proved a success. There is another member (a relation of the applicants) employed as a clerk in the Madura Registrar's office who has just applied for promotion to a Subregistrarship.

2. I shall be glad, however, to employ the applicants as clerks in the department and thus give them an opportunity of showing their capacity for filling ~~an~~ more responsible duties. It will be impossible, however, to give them more than Rs.15 a month as the lowest pay of the clerks in this department is Rs.14 per mensem.

4. It is submitted that the case of the present applicants is similar to those dealt with in the precedents and their attainments are of anything superior to those of Sunderesa Row and Thiagasimbala Raja. It is therefore submitted that the S.G. of Registration may be asked to give them a trial as probationary Sub-registrars. In this connection attention is solicited to para 3 of the Govt. of India, Foreign Department letter printed in G.O. No. 280 Pol. of 22-8-82 which shows the attitude of the Supreme Govt. with regard to the employment of Political Pensioners.

R.S. Ch. The Govt of India then 3/8/98 said that it considered the grant of pensions an unsatisfactory way of providing for the children of deceased pensioners and requested that endeavours might be made to provide such persons, as far as possible, with suitable employment in Govt. Every effort to these Political pensioners of these and other classes to help themselves should of course be encouraged from a political point of view but it is open to Govt. to consider whether the Registration Dept. should be made a refuge for these "failed Matriculants". This is a point for Judicial to consider and the papers may, it is submitted, be handed over u.o.

Exemption from Examination Rules and entrance in the Registration Dept. of certain Foreign Pensioners

FOR ORDERS.

Indicial Endorsement No. 1719

Attention is solicited to the note previously put up on C. No. 995. The present current is the reply of the Inspector General of Registration to whom the Govt. Agent letter was referred for remarks. It will be seen that the I.G. is not prepared to entertain the applicants as Sub-registrars in his Department though he is willing to offer them clerkships on Rs 15/- each and thus give them an opportunity of showing their capacity for filling more responsible duties.

2. The reasons adduced by the I. G. of Registration against the employment of the Applicants as Sub-Registrars are the low order of their educational attainments and the incompetence of ^{most of the} pensioners already entertained in the Department.

~~It is however doubtful whether the present applicants will be ready to accept the offer especially in view of the fact that the stipend has been estimated at a rate of Rs. 100 per month.~~

The I. G.'s letter may, it is submitted, be communicated to the Sub-Agent and the latter instructed to inform the applicants.

Order is submitted for approval.
