Sir,

In resubmitting herewith the statement received with your No. $\frac{I.A.D.}{225}$ dated 6th August 1898, I have the honour to report that the calculation of ages in Column 6 thereof has been made on the following basis.

(1) The ages of these individuals as given in the health certificate dated 29th June 1898 are 20, 24, 23, 22 and 21 respectively. The exact dates of their births not being known, 1st July of the year of their birth will have to be adopted as such in all cases (Cl. 9. dated 10-11-96 No. 1194 Public); and their ages as noted in the certificate must be held to relate to the year running from 1st July '97, while 31, 25, 24, 23 & 22 will will be their respective ages on the 1st July 1898, which is their last birth day prior to the date of the statement under reference.

Further, the year of birth of Muhammad Ali, No. 1 in the list, and who is also a pensioner, has been noted in the Collector's half of the Permanent Pay Order as 1867; and in the absence of any definite date of birth, 1st July will be taken as such, and his age on the 1st July 1898, which is his last birth day prior to the submission of this statement will be 31 years. As a precedent for this procedure, I beg to refer you to your endorsement No. $\frac{I.A.D.}{148}$ dated 21st September '97 on a similar application from this Office, read in Government Order No. 653 dated 5-10-97.

I have &c

The commutation value of the pension of each of the individuals named in the margin is as shown against their respective names.

Name	Age	Amount of monthly pension.	Annual amount.	Value of annuity	Bonus	Arrears of pension due from 5-2-97 to 31-7-98 at Rs 20-1-9.

Nawab Begam	25	3 5 7½	40 3 6	11.610	467 -	59 13 7
Fatima Begam	24	3 5 7½	40 3 6	11.663	469 -	59 13 7
Salib Begam	23	3 5 7½	40 3 6	11.714	471 -	59 13 7
Amir unnisa Begam.	22	3 5 7½	40 3 6	11.763	473 -	59 13 7

In columns 6 of the Statement of bonuses furnished by the Collector, the age on last birth day of each pensioner is given as a year in excess of that shown in the previous column. On enquiry the Collector in his letter No. 2279 dated 13th August 1898, copy enclosed, explains that that was the age of each pensioner on the 1st July 1898 which was the last birth day prior to the date of the Statement referred to above. Hence the bonuses have been co ment.
