Order—No. 779, Financial, dated 8th September 1898.

Under existing orders a copy of every official publication, those of an ephemeral or confidential nature excepted, has to be supplied to the British Museum through the India Office, quarterly lists of such publications being prepared by the Superintendent of the Government Press to enable the authorities of the museum to check any omissions that may occur in the transmission of books to England. In view to the strict observance of this rule, the Superintendent notifies the approaching issue of every official publication to the Secretariat Department concerned, which decides whether the publication is of an ephemeral or of a confidential nature, and, if it belongs to neither of these classes, intimates to the Superintendent, Government Press, the number of copies to be transmitted to the India Office. The intimation with the foregoing particulars is then forwarded to the Financial Department.

2. With reference to this procedure, the publications mentioned in the appendix to this order will be treated as ephemeral and excluded from the quarterly lists prescribed in G.O., No. 973, Financial, dated 22nd September 1892. The Superintendent, Government Press, will, however, continue to furnish intimation of the issue of such publications and will, in forwarding such intimation, add to his office-note: "This publication is / These publications are ephemeral under G.O., No. , Financial, dated 1898, and will be omitted from the quarterly list prescribed in G.O., No. 973, Financial, dated 22nd September 1892."
