Read—the following papers :—

From E. A. ELWIN, Esq., Political Agent, Kurnool, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 5th August 1897, C. No. 112 P.

In reply to G.O., Mis. No. 448, Political, dated 8th July 1897, I have the honour to report that Rafi-ul-mulk intends to appear for two of the special tests, viz., "Précis-writing" and "Translation, Higher," to be held in October next and that he will try his best to attend the Third-class Vernacular Test to be held in January 1898.

2. I may mention that Rafi-ul-mulk failed to pass the F.A. examination for which he appeared shortly before leaving the Aligarh College.

From E. A. ELWIN, Esq., Political Agent and Acting Collector of Kurnool, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 26th August 1897, C. No. 122 P.

2. Rafi-ul-mulk and his father will at once be consulted on the subject of the training of the former in order to fit him for Government service and the arrangements proposed to be made will shortly be reported.

Order—Mis. No. 551, Political, dated 17th August 1897.

G.O., Mis. No. 15, Political, dated 5th January 1898.

Read—the following paper :—

From E. A. ELWIN, Esq., Collector and Political Agent of the Kurnool District, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 23rd November 1897, C. No. 194 P.

In continuation of paragraph 2 of my letter C. No. 127, dated 26th August 1897, I have the honour to inform you that, after consulting Rafi-ul-mulk and his father, it has been arranged that the former shall from the middle of January next begin to receive training somewhat similar to that undergone by Assistant Collectors and Probationary Deputy Collectors.

2. On enquiring in September last into the nature of the studies that Rafi-ul-mulk was pursuing I found that he was preparing himself at home for the Special Test examinations (Translation Higher and Précis-writing Higher) to be held during the latter part of the following month, and thought it unnecessary as well as unadvisable to disturb him.

3. Since 1st instant he has been attending my office, where he is given Telugu petitions to translate into English and encouraged to converse in Telugu with the clerks. Arrangements have also been made for his being present on two days of the week at the Kurnool Town Sub-Magistrate's Court, where he will hear Telugu freely spoken by different classes of the community. The above occupations will, I think, serve as a good preparation for the Third-class Vernacular Test, for which he is to appear early in January next.

4. On his return from Madras his regular training in magisterial and revenue work will commence.

Order—Mis. No. 15, Political, dated 5th January 1898.

Recorded with the remark that the measures adopted for the training of Rafi-ul-mulk are satisfactory. The Political Agent will be requested to submit a further report at the end of six months which should contain information as to the special tests for which Rafi-ul-mulk has appeared and those he has passed.

G.O., No. 530, Political, dated 3rd August 1898.

Read—the following papers:—

From MUHAMMAD RAZÁ KHÁN, Esq., Acting Political Agent of Kurnool, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 4th July 1898, No. E-1.

Adverting to G.O., Mis. No. 15, Political, dated 5th January 1898, I have the honour to report as follows.

2. Rafi-ul-mulk has, since the receipt of Government order under reply, been declared to have passed the Third Vernacular Test in Telugu held in January last as well as the Translation Test, Higher, in Hindustani held in October 1897, the latter in the first class. He has attended the Town Sub-Magistrate's Court for two days in each week for a period of 6½ months with twofold object of acquainting himself with colloquial Telugu which parties coming before courts generally speak and observing how in practice enquiries and trials are held in criminal cases. He attended my office during the above period on all the other office days, in the course of which he picked up some knowledge of official correspondence and the various branches of revenue work—registering, despatching, appeals relating to village offices, abkari, income-tax, &c. He has been carefully studying the Indian Penal Code, Civil Procedure Code and the Evidence Act for appearing for Criminal, Higher, Translation B Lower (Telugu) and Précis, Higher, to be held in October 1898.

3. From about the middle of May last, Rafi-ul-mulk has been placed under M.R.Ry. S. Ramu Iyer, Pyapalli Deputy Collector, to enable him to have practical training in jamabandi and other important work required of a divisional officer. He took part in the jamabandi of the Pattikonda taluk, first looking into the accounts of a dozen villages. He has further been attending the magisterial enquiries whenever held by the said officer in camp. He will accompany Ramu Iyer Garu to Pattikonda where the abkari sales are to be held on the 11th instant.

4. I beg to submit, in conclusion, that Rafi-ul-mulk has made satisfactory progress in learning revenue work and in studying the books prescribed for the Criminal Higher Grade, and to recommend that, as suggested by Messrs. Tate and Mullaly, he may be appointed a Deputy Collector on probation, which will, to supplement his natural inclination for perseverance and learning work, act as an incentive to his thoroughly qualifying himself for the office both by examinations and efficiency.

Read—the following paper:—

From the Political Agent, Kurnool, dated 20th July 1898, C. No. 120 P.

Order—No. 470, Educational, dated 1st August 1898.

Rafi-ul-mulk will be exempted from the operation of the examination rules with a view to his appearing in the Criminal Judicial Test Examination, Higher Grade, in October next.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O., No. 530, POLITICAL, DATED 3RD AUGUST 1898.

From the Political Agent, Kurnool, dated 4th July 1898, No. E. 1.

For the Chief Secretary—

Rafi'-ul-mulk is the eldest of the four sons of Dáúd Khán, the grandson of the last Nawab of Kurnool.

2. Letter, No. 188, Political, dated 19th March 1895, contains an account of the education received by the sons of Dáúd Khán up to the end of 1895 when the three eldest were sent to the Anglo-Oriental College at Aligarh. Further particulars regarding Rafi'-ul-mulk are contained in the Note in G.O., No. 381, Political, dated 13th June 1896. In accordance with the decision in that order, Rafi'-ul-mulk, who had been well reported on by the Principal of the Aligarh College as regards his industry and general good conduct, but had failed to secure a pass in the F.A. Examination, was brought down from Aligarh to Kurnool in order to learn the vernacular languages of South India and to qualify for a Deputy Collectorate. The Political Agent, Kurnool, was at that time directed to inform Dáúd Khán that the ultimate success of his son would depend on the progress made by the latter in these studies.

3. The Political Agent reports the progress made by Rafi'-ul-mulk and Recommends that he may be appointed a Deputy Collector on probation, a measure which he thinks will serve to stimulate his natural inclination for perseverance.

His Excellency the Governor—

The lad's progress seems fair and as it has been decided to give him a Deputy Collectorate he might be made a Probationary Deputy Collector now. My only doubt is whether he is sufficiently advanced yet for that step. If he is made a Probationary Deputy Collector he will have to pass the tests in two years. I cannot say from the papers whether he is likely to be able to do that or not, but I think not. If not it would be better to let him go on as he is (though he will thereby lose pay) till he is sure of being able to pass his examinations within two years.

Note by His Excellency the Governor.

This is a somewhat special case, and the young man merits encouragement. I would at once appoint him a Probationary Deputy Collector. If he should fail to pass his tests in two years, the time might be extended.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

To the Under Secretary--

There is at present no permanent or sub. pro tem. appointment vacant in the Deputy Collectors' grades. If Raff-ul-mulk should forthwith be appointed a Deputy Collector, a special appointment (permanent or temporary) in the last grade will therefore have to be created. This the Local Government is competent to do under the provisions of articles 93 and 96 of the Civil Service Regulations. Orders are in the circumstances solicited as to what should be done in the present case.

2. It may also be mentioned in this connection that under existing orders none but graduates, &c., are allowed to appear for the Revenue test, Higher grade, and none but First-in-Arts men, &c., for the Criminal Judicial test, Higher. Raff-ul-mulk has passed only the Matriculation Examination, so that if he is to be allowed to appear for either the Revenue or Criminal tests, Higher grade, a special order permitting him to do so will have to be first issued in the Educational Department. The Collector says that he is now reading "the books prescribed for the Criminal, Higher grade". The period within which applications are received for special tests expires on the 31st instant.
