To

His Excellency the Governor

Octacamund.

The humble petition of the undersigned Relation dependent on the late Ma rajah of Tanjore.

Mayeth please Your Excellency.

We beg respectfully to bring the following to Your Excellency's kind notice.

We submitted a Memorial to the Excellency the Viceroy of India on the 4th December 1895 praying to relieve us from distress by granting us some maintenance allowance.

The Government of India ordered in their Endorsement No 2303. G. dated 26th December 1895 that we should submit our Memorial through the local authorities.

We thereupon submitted to Your Excellency on the 15th of June 1897 a petition containing a description of our woes and troubles consequent on our state of starvation.

not traceable to the Regt
19/10/98

Fortunately for us that some 14 months back there was however an inquiry for reasons unknown by an official of the Tanjore Government Agency as to the state of our circumstances.

We regret to submit that our petition is still under consideration.

Our Lord, we cannot know how long we are to subject ourselves to poverty which lords over us. We submit that no others amongst the Rajahs' relations are so poor as ourselves.

We humbly hope and trust that our present miserable condition will move Your Excellency's sympathy on our behalf.

May the Great Lord of all Good confer His blessings on Your Excellency.

We beg to subscribe ourselves Your Excellency's most humble and devoted subjects.
