To,

The Chief Secretary,
to the Government of Madras Cotacamund.

The humble Appeal petition of Bakshi Begum, daughter by the married wife of the deceased Mirza Budan Baig, a Mysore Pensioner, residing in Alipura Street, Vellore.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

J That Petitioner begs to submit her appeal against the order of Government No. 624 dated 2nd September 1898 in sanctioning pensions to the representative of the said late Mirza Budan Baig

That the genealogical table as accompanied with the petition of the rival claimant Mirza Nisar Ali Baig is altogether incredible.
It has been entered there in that Amina Begum is the daughter of the deceased Mirza Budan Baig by his first wife and that Appellant and Mirza Nisar ^{Ali Baig} are by his second wife. This is utterly false and unfounded. Appellant is the only daughter by his married wife and the others are not.

That appellant has been excluded from enjoying a share in her father's pension on the score that the pension now enjoyed by her husband is continuable. Of course it is continuable but it will be quite inadequate to meet the requirements of all the members of the family consisting of 2 wives, 3 sons and 3 daughters of whom one is a widow with one daughter. It was on this ground that Appellant's deceased father used to render a monthly pecuniary aid of Rs 3 and a yearly assistance of Rs 15.

The number of souls to be provided in the continuance of her husband's pension is 9 and the amount that would be sanctioned for this maintenance will be Rs. 8.0. It is evident whether this scanty amount would suffice the wants of so many souls or not.

That Surana Begum has been granted a share out of the late Mirza Budan Bai's pension on the ground that the pension now enjoyed by her husband Abdul Rahman is not continuable. Though the pension is not continuable but the gratuity will be afforded her which is in all respects equivalent to a pension.

That therefore Appellant is left in a perfect dilemma as to what had induced Government to come to such a conclusion as to exclude Appellant from the enjoyment of a share and to allow the rival Claimants to participate in the same.

That if a parallelism be drawn between the present circumstances of the Appellant and those of her rival Claimants, hers will be more deplorable so much so that the house she is now living in, has been mortgaged and a portion of her husband's pension goes to defray the interest.

That the distribution of the pension enjoyed by the said Mirza Budan Bai was not made in accordance with the Muhammadan Law under which she is in all respects entitled to a grant.

That out of 8 individuals recommended by the Collector, four have been granted pensions but the Petitioner alone has been deprived of the means of support.

Under the circumstances represented above Appellant requests your honor will be pleased to once more go through the case and accord sanction for the continuance in her name of a portion of the pension enjoyed by her deceased father.

For which act of kindness Appellant as in duty bound shall ever pray,

Vellore,
1st October 1898

Bakhshi Begum.
