To

His Excellency the Governor in Council

The humble petition of Mirza Secunder Buksh

Most humbly Sheweth

That your Excellency's most humble petitioner begs respectfully to approach your most gracious Excellency with the following few lines and prays most ardently that your Excellency would, out of compassion and royal clemency, consider favourably the petitioner's most unfortunate case.

That the petitioner, during the life of his father Mirza Lullan Buksh Bahadur, who was enjoying a pension of Rs 272 per mensem, was solely and exclusively in the enjoyment of the whole pension. But after the demise of the petitioner's father, your humble petitioner was granted a stipend of Rs 20 per mensem, which hardly sufficed the petitioner, as he had a large host of dependants to support. To add to this meagre income, petitioner served for sometime as schoolmaster in the Harris High School. But seeing that this did not help him as he expected, the petitioner resigned the post and tried to better his prospects by first applying to Government for exemption from the examination rules which stood in the way of the petitioner. As the petitioner had passed the Middle School Examination in First Class, the petitioner's application for exemption was backed by the then Government Agent. But the Government declined to accord its sanction to such a concession. The petitioner then had the only alternative of resorting to private tution, which he readily found in a noble man's house close by Mr. Nazir Ali Saheb, on a salary of Rs10 per mensem.

Mr. Nazir Ali Saheb sometime after the petitioner's employment to teach his children, required the petitioner to pledge some jewels for him to a Sowcar, which the petitioner did as usual. The petitioner having found an appointment in the Dominion of the Nizam, went away to Hyderabad, making over all responsibility of the said jewels to his servant under his order. About a year afterwards the petitioner receiving an alarming telegram from his son, stating that a warrant was issued for the arrest of the petitioner, the petitioner forthwith repaired to Madras and on enquiry, found that it concerned the jewel affair.

That your humble petitioner, being instigated by the said Mr. Nazir Ali Saheb to depose in the said case as he tutored the petitioner, was himself the cause of so much disgrace and loss of reputation which afterwards resulted in the punishment of both the said original party, Mr. Nazir ali saheb and the petitioner. Further commentary is needless, as the petitioner afterwards saw, that he had made a serious blunder in not having given out the truth on the onset, which he afterwards did. This strange revealation instead of releasing the petitioner from the impending punishment, turned the tables so as to cause a serious punishment not only on one, but on more than one score.

That the petitioner in addition to having suffered an incarceration, also underwent a loss of his pension, the sole means of his and his family's living. This double punishment being represented to your Excellency's Government, the petitioner's children's miserable future state was taken into consideration and the petitioner's stipend divided among them providing them with Government support till the age of 21 years

A [illegible]

That the petitioner is now placed under a serious loss of all prestige and Government support needs no further commentation than that the petitioner cannot expect to secure an employment to eke out his livelihood, except that his children might support him.

That the petitioner therefore, humbly begs to submit that once more. His Excellency's benign Government would be so good as to take the petitioner's most unfortunate case into consideration and order the renewal of the petitioner's divided pension once more in the name of your petitioner and miserable petitioner. Or that the distributed stipend now enjoyed by the petitioner's children might be allowed to continue till their life-time. Or lastly that a commutation of the said consolidated pension might be sanctioned to enable the petitioner to enter into some lucrative business and thus support himself and his family and save them from starvation and depravity.

For which act of kindness and charity the humble petitioner and his whole family as in duty bound, shall ever pray in their five times prayer for your Excellency's long life and prosperity.

I beg to Remain
Your Excellency's most obedient Servt
Mirza Secunder Bukah

No. 362 of 1898. Paymaster Jarnatic Stipends' office Chepak 17th October 1898.

Lt. Colonel D. D. Pryce. I. S. C.
Paymaster Jarnatic Stipends
Chepak.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government
Fort Saint George.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward for the consideration of Government a petition in original from the late Jarnatic Stipendiary No. 711 D. Mirza Sikandar Bakhsh to the address of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor, with my following remarks:-

2. Petitioner prays in the first instance the restoration of his Stipend of Rs 20. per mensem which
F was resumed by G.O. No. 427 dated 29th June 1897 "Political" on his being convicted by the Presidency Magistrate under Sections 109, 406 & 403 of the Indian Penal Code, to undergo one year's rigorous imprisonment. If not he prays that the resumed pension which was granted for the benefit of his children as a Special case and distributed
A to them by G.O. No. 597 dated 9th September 1897 "Political", may be continued for their lives instead of, until 21st year of his Sons and marriage of his daughters; or lastly to grant the commutation of the said distributed Stipend to enable him to apply the proceeds thereof in some trade.

3. With regard to the above prayers of the petitioner I have the honour to State that the Stipend he was in receipt of, being resumed on his conviction by the Presidency Magistrate which decision was upheld by the High Court on his appeal, his prayer for the restoration of the Stipend is inadmissible. And as regards his other 2 alternative prayers, I have the honour to observe that the Stipend being granted as a Special case and out of the pure bounty of Government for the benefit of his children until they become majors, both of his requests are likewise inadmissible.

I have the honour to be
Sir
your most obedient Servant

Subject—
Petition of Mirza Sekandar Bakhsh (Carnatic Stipendiary)
& Paymaster's remarks thereon.

For Orders

In G.O. No 427 of 29.6.37 the petitioner's stipend of Rs 20/ was resumed in consequence of the petitioner having been convicted of a criminal offence. As a special case, however, Govt. permitted his son's children to draw the pension between them — the 3 boys till they attained their majority & the 3 girls till their marriage. This concession was made solely in the children's interests & the Paymaster was instructed to ensure that their Education was continued by means of the pension money. —

2. Mirza Sikandar Bakhsh now petitions Govt. through the Paymaster Carnatic Stipends on his own behalf requesting that the "divided pension" may be again "renewed in his name".

As alternatives to his request he asks –
(a) that the pensions of the children (respectively) may continue for the period of their lifetime – or
(b) that the consolidated pension may be commuted to enable him to engage in trade.
3. The Paymaster considers all three prayers equally inadmissible. The first on the ground of his Petitioner having been convicted in the Prov. Mag.tes Court of a crime for which he received one year's R.I. and the last two on the ground that the division of the pension among the children until such time as they could support themselves was pure Govt. bounty.
4. Draft order of refusal is submitted herewith for approval.
