Plague Precautions at Outports

Sanctioning, on certain conditions, the relaxation of the provisions referred to in G.O., No. 382, Marine, dated 13th May 1898, so as to admit of the landing at Mangalore of certain officers and crew of vessels of the Bombay Steam Navigation Company.

WITH ORDER

CHIEF SECRETARY'S

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper:—

From the Plague Commissioner, dated 27th October 1898, C. No. 1366.

Order—No. 920, Marine, dated 3rd November 1898.

In G.O., No. 367, Marine, dated 11th May 1898, extended to all outports by G.O., No. 382, Marine, dated 13th May 1898, it is prescribed that, in the case of "healthy" vessels from an infected port, ships' crews shall "not leave the ship."

2. The Agents of the Bombay Steam Navigation Company now request that this regulation be so far relaxed as to admit of the landing at Mangalore of certain officers and crew of their vessels under the same precautions as are taken in the case of passengers, viz., after disinfection.

3. The Plague Commissioner sees no objection to the proposed relaxation, which is accordingly sanctioned. The officers and crew referred to will be allowed to land under the precautions prescribed for passengers, and provided they embark again; or, if they do not, are brought under supervision in the same way as passengers are.
