CHIEF SECRETARY 4 NOV. 1898 GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS*

The humble petition of Fathima Bee a widow of the late Muhammad Ameenuddin Hussain Khan Bahadoor, a Carnatic pensioner

Most humbly Sheweth

That your Excellency's most humble petitioner begs respectfully to approach your most gracious Excellency with the following few lines and prays most ardently that your Excellency would out of compassion and royal clemency consider favourably the petitioners most unfortunate case

That the petitioner, during the life time of her husband Muhamad Ameenuddin Hussain Khan Bahadoor who was enjoying a pension of Rs 300 per mensem, was solely and exclusively in the enjoyment of the greater portion of his pension, as he had no other wife alive except the petitioner

But after the demise of the petitioner's husband, your humble petitioner was granted a stipend of Rs 3-3-0 per mensem, this meagre income does not allow her keep up her rank and dignity and does not suffice the petitioner even for her six times meal, thus the petitioner has to undergo daily starvation and hardships, besides that the petitioner has none to look after her in her old age except God the Almighty

2015 Bdle 14-1-96 For approved list of the stipend.

That the petitioner, therefore, most humbly

begs to submit that once more His Excellency's benign Government would be as good as to take the petitioner's most unfortunate case into consideration and to sanction an order to add a little more to her meagre income, to enable her to be saved from the present famine and dislocations.

Now the petitioner extreme[ly] hopes that your Excellency would graciously be pleased to bear some mercy on this poor petitioner by granting something as your Excellency desires, either out of the lapsed portion of her husband's pension or as charity from the Gosha widow Fund.

For which act of kindness and charity the petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray in her five times prayer for your Excellency's long life and prosperity.

The humble begs to remain your Excellency's most obedient maid Servant

Fatima Bee
