have been written from Mutha
on the 6th inst and she states that she proposes to start in about 10 or 15 days" & to journey further north than Benares through several cities in N W P & Bombay (enumerated in her letter) returning by a new route to ^{direct from Benares} Sangore or as an alternative return by the same route through which she travelled from Sangore doing "whichever may be - convenient".

Note - It will be seen from para. 5 of the draft for Orders passed XX that the Rani undertook this journey against Govt's advice in full view of the fact that on the return journey she might experience some inconvenience through Plague inspection rules. It may be presumed, therefore, that she is now prepared to submit to them.
